Swimmer Is Mangled By Boat's Propeller

Loses Both Legs, Part Of Hand

A 27-year-old swimming champion, competing in a Sausalito to San Francisco race yesterday, was badly mangled when caught in the propellers of a fishing boat.

James Small of Oakland was in critical condition today at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco.

However, his condition was described as "slightly improved" since yesterday.

His left leg was cut off by the fishing boat. At the hospital, his right leg was amputated above the knee. Hospital officials said doctors believed they could save his left hand, which was gashed across the wrist. His left thumb has to be amputated. His left hip was broken.

Small dived off the pier at the Ondine Restaurant at 8:15 a.m. with 11 other swimmers in the Dolphin Club Golden Gate race. Two hours later, the other swimmers were about 100 yards from the west end of Alcatraz Island, stroking toward San Francisco's Aquatic Park.

Loggers' Ax Ringing Down Seashore Trees

Action Labeled 'Disastrous' By Park Aide

BULLETIN

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. in Marin County Superior this afternoon signed a temporary restraining order to stop timber cutting in the Point Reyes National Seashore area.

The action came as a suit was filed by Bolema Palasades, Inc., against the Trio Lumber Co., Owens Logging Co. and Sweet Timber Co. at 1:15 p.m. today. Sims set a hearing on a permanent injunction at 2 p.m. next Monday.

The lumberman's ax kept ringing within the future boundaries of the Point Reyes National Seashore today.

And, according to Thomas Kornelis, realty officer at the seashore office, there was only one word which could describe the effects of the six days of continuous logging. This was "disastrous."

Kornelis, who inspected property of Bolinas Palisades Inc. yesterday, where loggers from Owens Logging Co. of Bodega Bay are working, said that between 150 and 200 Douglas fir trees have been cut down.

He said five men were working at the site yesterday. Loggers were also on the job Saturday. The first logs have already been taken out, he said.

PACT EVAPORATES

Last Friday, Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) reported he had reached agreement with attorneys for Trio Lumber Co. of Sebastopol and Sweet Lumber Co. of Oregon for a two-week moratorium on the cutting, during which the National Park Service could negotiate for purchase of the timber rights held by Sweet and assigned to Trio. Kornelis discussed a similar agreement with H. E. Budd Ridgeway, president of Trio Lumber, and believed accord had been reached. At one point, Owens Logging Co. workers reported felling of trees had been ordered stopped.

The "agreement" quickly evaporated, however.

Kornelis said today condemnation papers were being processed.

NO AGREEMENT

The papers, which would condem the logging rights contracted by Trio from Sweet, could be filed in United States District Court in San Franisco "in a week, if they are processed at top speed," Kornelis said.

The realty officer said, "We can't get the owners to agree."

Trio Lumber Co. "doesn't want us to file the papers. It wants to continue cutting," Kornelis said.

On the other hand the attorney for Sweet has said that the company "wants the papers filed as soon as possible," according to Kornelis. At that time Sweet would negotiate the sale or trade of the logging rights for other government properties.

Douglas G. Hertz, president of the Bolema Club and secretary of Bolinas Palisades Inc., has said that he plans to file a restraining order today in Marin Superior Court to halt the logging.

California Loses Battle For More Water Rights

TRAGIC EMBRACE — Sports car driven by Omer G. Bradshaw, 21, of Petaluma wrapped itself around concrete pillar of Lucas Valley Road interchange crossing of Highway 101 early today. Supreme Court Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider its June 3 decision regarded as a victory for Arizona over California in the long controversy over Colorado River water rights.

Reconsideration was asked by California in a petition asserting the court had made error of fact and law.

The petition disputed the court's conclusion that the 1928 Boulder Canyon Project Act apportioned 4.4 million acre-feet of water yearly to California, 2.8 million to Arizona and three-tenths of a million to Nevada.

BRIEF ORDER

The high tribunal rejected the request for reconsideration in a brief order which made no comment. The order noted that Chief Justice Earl Warren took no part in consideration of the case.

California's petition disputed the high tribunal's conclusion that Colorado River tributaries were not to be included in the water pool to be divided.

The state also challenged the court's finding that Congress authorized the secretary of interior to allot the water in times of shortage between the states and within a state without regard to state laws.

"The court's new construction of the project act," the petition said, "conflicts with the plain language of the act, with its legislative history, and with its construction by the secretary of the interior and the states for three decades."

YEARLY USE

California's present use of Colorado River water is about 5.1 million acre feet yearly.

Stanley Mosk, attorney general of California, in a statement issued in connection with the filing of the petition said the state would get about 200,000 acre feet of "excess or surplus" water in addition to the 4.4 million annually if the high court modified its decision as California asked.

Joinning in the California petition were the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, Los Angeles, San Diego, San Diego County, Coachella Valley County Water District, and Palo Verde Irrigation District.

Reed School Tax Hike On Ballot Tomorrow

Voters in the Reed School District will decide tomorrow whether the district's operating tax rate should be increased $1, from $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation to $3.25.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Reed, Bel Aire and Belvedere schools and in the garage at 66 Sonora Way, in the Marin Estates section of Corte Madera. The county clerk's office reported 3,500 persons are eligible to vote.

The $1 increase has been the subject of a dispute among trustees of the district. They agree there should be a hike in the operating tax but disagree as to how much it should be.

Trustee Leo Souza says a 50-cent increase would be enough. He is critical of a citizens committee report on projected needs of the district and says taxes should be increased gradually, with 50 cents being adequate for the next two years.

Another trustee, Richard J. MacLaury, urged the board to ask for a $1.48 increase, saying the higher amount would mean the difference between "good" and "excellent" education. He later favored the $1 increase, however, on assurances the lower rate would be enough to maintain Reed's present program.

If approved, the increase would put Reed's operating rate limit at the highest of elementary districts within the Tamalpais High School District, $3.25. Other districts now with a $2.25 limit, an allowed maximum which is not always levied in full, are Kentfield, Mill Valley and Sausalito. An increase of $2.25 was approved last week by San Anselmo School District voters.

(Over-ride taxes and debt amortization this year added another 58 cents to the total rate in the Reed district, making this year's total tax rate for the district $2.83. These extras will not be affected by the outcome of tomorrow's election.

According to a citizens committee, which originally recommended a $1.48 increase, the boost in the tax rate is necessary to maintain the education program in the district and allow improvements.

Supt. Edward C. Pino says the rate must go up to continue the existing ratio of one teacher per 25 pupils. Larger classes would reduce budget needs, but trustees say superior teaching cannot be maintained with larger classes.

Kennedy Tells Trade Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy assured the world today that the United States "will continue to follow a national policy of self-restraint in the use of restrictions on trade and of confidence in our trading partners to do the same."

He gave the assurance in a letter of transmittal preceding the seventh annual report to Congress on the trade agreements program.

However, the President continued, "The United States will continue to press for the removal of all restrictions that hinder our exports."

Red Lighted Signs Voted By Planners

Red lighted signs, now taboo in unincorporated areas of Marin, should be permitted, Marin County Planning Commissioners decided today by a 4-to-3 vote.

The county's present sign ordinance prohibits the use of illuminated red signs, but red-painted signs with flood lights are permitted.

Four members of the planning commission, Chairman Niels Schultz Jr., George Scott, Edward K. Wachsman and H. C. Hankins, voted to abolish the ban on red illuminated signs. Dr. William F. Upton, Felix M. Warburg and Charles R. Johnson voted against the change.

The commission's recommendation will go to the county board of supervisors on Oct. 29 for a public hearing date to be set.

"I see nothing wrong with the use of red," said Wachsman. "It is arbitrary to eliminate just one color."

Chairman Schultz said the ban on red is an "archaic" provision that apparently stems from the days when only red was available in neon signs.

"It seems to me that this is just a case of likes and dislikes," said Hankins.

Dr. Upton, one of the three-man minority, said, "I don't think there has been enough showing that this is a public necessity."

He and two other members of the minority contended red lighted signs may too easily be confused with safety signals.

Representatives of several business organizations, including oil companies, urged that red be permitted.

The planning commission this morning also:

1. Continued until Nov. 18 a proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance which would prohibit residences in industrial and commercial areas.

2. Continued to Nov. 4 a proposal to establish a trailer park ordinance to control mobile homes.

3. Approved an amendment to the zoning ordinance to change Los Ranchitos area from the present limited agricultural to limited agricultural with minimum one-acre sites.

Two Are Questioned In Quentin Stabbings

Two San Quentin Prison convicts were questioned today about the fatal stabbing Saturday of a fellow prisoner during a football game in the prison's lower yard.

Encarnacion Ramiriz, 30-year-old inmate from Los Angeles County, died at 12:10 p.m. Saturday of stab wounds in the chest. He was carried from the stands to the prison hospital by fellow inmates while about 3,000 prisoners watched a game between the San Francisco State College junior varsity and the prison football team. The college won 13 to 12.

Two other prisoners were wounded in the scuffle. An examination of Richard Manriques, 25, one of four men who carried Ramiriz to the hospital, revealed three deep wounds in his right shoulder and lower abdomen. He did not complain of his wounds until prison guards received an anonymous telephone call inside the prison, suggesting that Manriques be searched.

Both prisoners refused to talk about the fight although they were questioned by prison officials and Marin County Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety yesterday and again today.

Ramiriz, a three-time loser serving a two-to-20-year sentence for narcotics possession, died of wounds inflicted by a "small, sharp instrument." Warden Fred R. Dickson said no weapon was found. Ramiriz arrived at the prison April 13, 1961.

Manriques, of Sacramento, serving a 10-year sentence for possession of marijuana, entered the prison in June, 1961. Hernandez, convicted of lewd and lascivious conduct in Los Angeles, first entered San Quentin in 1956. He was returned last month from the medical facility in Vacaville.

Two Seriously Hurt As Car Hits Pillar

Two youths were seriously injured about 12:05 a.m. today in the crash of a Jaguar sports coupe into a concrete pillar of the Highway 101 overpass over Lucas Valley Road.

The driver, Omer G. Bradshaw, 21, of Petaluma, a service station attendant employed in Novato, was taken to Marin General Hospital with face cuts and severe head injuries. He was reported in fair condition.

Edward J. Emond, 18, of 1041 First Street, Novato, was treated at the same hospital for a broken right leg and transferred in "fair to good" condition to Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

California Highway Patrolmen Angelo Corvino and Gerald Walkup cited Bradshaw on suspicion of drunken driving involving an injury, speeding and driving over the double line.

Bradshaw was driving from Lucas Valley Road. His car failed to come out of a curve leading under the highway to the frontage road each of 101. It literally wrapped itself around the concrete pillar.

U.N. Assembly Again Rejects Red China Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The General Assembly rejected by a substantial margin today a new bid to seat Red China in the United Nations.

The vote on the Albanian-Cambodian proposal was 41 in favor, 57 against and 12 abstaining. Ethopia was absent. The result last year was 42 in favor, 56 against with 12 abstentions.

It was the 14th consecutive year in which the China issue had been sidetracked or in which the assembly had voted outright to keep the Peking regime out.

The vote came after a week-long debate which placed the spotlight on the ideological rift between the Kremlin and the Chinese Communists.

Tito Visits Lab

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia toured today the 35-million-dollar plasma physics laboratory of Princeton University where researchers are attempting to develope a controlled version of the hydrogen bomb.

Senate Approves Bill For College Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate today approved a bill calling for a big program of federal aid for construction of college classrooms. The vote was 60 to 19.

The house also has passed a college aid bill. But differences between the two measures over a church-state issue threatened to delay for many weeks final congressional action on the administration-backed legislation.

Santo Domingo Torn By Rioting

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—An anti-government rally turned into a free-swinging riot last night as police used clubs and tear gas to break up the demonstration.

It was the most serious outbreak in the Dominican Republic since the government of President Juan Bosch was overthrown in a military coup Sept. 25.

Police arrested 32 demonstrators.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Churchills' Eldest Daughter Dies

LONDON (UPI) — The death of Diana Churchill, oldest daughter of Sir Winston and Lady Churchill, was announced today by a family spokesman.

Diana

The Westminster coroner's office said it was examining some bottles found at Miss Churchill's home before deciding whether to hold an inquest.

It was understood the 54-year-old Miss Churchill was found dead yesterday in the bedroom of her home in the expensive Belgravia district of London.

Neighbors said she had not appeared ill and when last seen Saturday night seemed "gay and carefree."

Air Activity On Algeria-Morocco Front

ALGIERS (UPI) — Commandeered private planes flew three battalions of fresh Algerian troops yesterday to the disputed border area where the army is fighting a sporadic, undeclared border war with Morocco.

No fighting has been reported since Friday, but Algeria charged that Moroccan fighter planes crossed the border yesterday and forced an Algerian Army helicopter to land in Morocco.

(Moroccan authorities said five of the nine men aboard the helicopter forced down at the border hamlet of Ain Choucer were Egyptian officers).

Hurricane Moving Away From Coast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hurricane Ginny appeared to be slowly lumbering away from shore today as it whipped up high waves and winds off the North Carolina coast.

One ship with 10 Navy men aboard was reported missing in the raging seas.

Ginny, which grew quickly into a full-blown hurricane last night, packed 90 mile-an-hour winds that extended as far as 60 miles in all directions from where it churned the Atlantic about 100 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras, N.C.

Troops Roll

BERLIN (UPI)—A U.S. Army convoy rolled over the East German autobahn today while troops of the American garrison in Berlin were called out on a dawn alert.

Today's convoy was a small one with only eight men in four trucks. All were considered crewmen, not passengers.

The Soviet checkpoint officers never have tried to make the crews of Allied military vehicles dismount for a head count and did not do so today, an army spokesman said.

Last Takeover

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—Burma's military government has nationalized the country's seven cigarette manufacturing companies. It was the last segment of big business still in private hands.

Macmillan's Plan

LONDON (UPI) — Former Prime Minister Harold Macmillan intends to remain a member of parliament at least for the time being, it was announced today.

He will make a decision next year about his future plans.

The announcement was made by the head of the Conservative Party Assn. in Bromley, Kent, which Macmillan represents.

To Visit U.S.

LA PAZ, Bolivia —President Victor Paz Estenssoro was to leave today on a trip to the United States, the first taken by any Bolivian president since Enrique Penaranda traveled north in 1942.

Paz will confer at least twice with President John F. Kennedy during a six-day stay in the United States. He also will visit the United Nations.

Fighting Rebels

President Abdel Salem Aref of Iraq said in a speech broadcast yesterday it was the first unified operation since the two nations merged armed forces two weeks ago.

Kenyatta Returns

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Fifty thousand Africans cheered Prime Minister Jomo Kenyatta yesterday on his return from London with word that Kenya will obtain full independence Dec. 12.

"I have got the British lion by the tail after 40 years of fighting for independence," said the veteran nationalist.

Defections Plague Home's New Cabinet

Some Approval But Top Party Member Resigning

LONDON (AP) — Lord Home, Britain's new prime minister, today faced an urgent repair job on the Conservative party's election machinery, disrupted by defections at the top.

Home's quickly constructed Cabinet—largely a reshuffle of Harold Macmillan's—won general approval from Conservative newspapers and derision from pro-Labor commentators.

Editorial writers of both sides suggested the government must be handicapped by the refusal of Iain MacLeod and Enoch Powell to serve under Home.

TO RESIGN

MacLeod, one of the younger Tory progressives who backed Richard A. Butler in last week's struggle for the leadership was expected to resign as joint chairman of the Conservative party.

Informed sources said his co-chairman, financier Lord Poole, would resign with him. He had backed Science Minister Lord Hailsham to succeed Macmillan.

MacLeod and Poole were a formidable team in planning Conservative platform and finances for the national election next year. Their joint chairmanship probably will be turned into a one-man post and given to John Hare, 52, a former labor minister who took the sinecure post of chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster in the new Cabinet.

STAKING CLAIM

Most political commentators believe MacLeod, by refusing office after winning an ovation at the recent Conservative party conference, staked an unspoken claim to the leadership if Home should falter.

Home's major innovation was to create a secretary for industry, trade and regional development and hand it to his former deputy foreign minister, Edward Heath, 47.

The new prime minister succeeded in getting his three major challengers for the party leadership to stick with him.

To replace MacLeod as floor leader in Commons, Home brought Selwyn Lloyd out of limbo and made him lord privy seal, giving him a seat in the cabinet. Lloyd, foreign secretary for five years under Anthony Eden and Macmillan, was fired as chancellor of the exchequer in July 1962 because his wage freeze policy had been unpopular.

Rockefeller, Sen. Goldwater Differ On Some Vital Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater disagree on some vital issues but they are in accord in advocating a two-front attack on President John F. Kennedy in 1964.

In answers to a series of identical questions submitted to them separately by The Associated Press, the two potential contenders for the GOP presidential nomination disclosed a deep division over civil rights legislation.

In the international field they stood together in opposition to any American pull-out from Viet Nam. Both cautioned against being lulled by Soviet overtures for peaceful coexistence.

Rockefeller served notice he did not regard answers to the questions as a substitute for a face-to-face debate with Goldwater over party policies. Goldwater said he was willing to debate "the weaknesses of the Kennedy administration" but saw little value in Republicans debating Republicans.

Both men picked foreign policy and the state of the domestic economy as prime two-pronged issues against Kennedy in 1964.

The governor and the senator were asked if they felt a Republican could defeat Kennedy without strong electoral support from the South, where Goldwater reportedly has much more strength than Rockefeller.

Goldwater said that to defeat Kennedy, would require "substantial electoral support from all sections of the country, not just any particular one."

The differences between Goldwater and Rockefeller were sharpest in response to a question as to what, if any, civil rights legislation Congress should pass.

The senator said his "basic feeling is that legislation will not solve the civil rights problem." The governor contended that "the federal government has a deep moral and constitutional responsibility to guarantee equal rights for every American citizen."

Rockefeller said a civil rights bill should "contain provisions for stronger voting guarantees, initiative by the attorney general in enforcing civil rights, equal opportunity for employment, non-discriminatory access to public accommodations, and for helping insure public education on a desegregated basis, in compliance with the law of the land."

Goldwater said he believes "there are adequate laws on the books to take care of voting abuses and all that is required is action by the attorney general."

On some other issues, their views could be summarized this way:

Health care for the elderly:

Goldwater—Said care was provided through Kerr-Mills Act. Proposed tax credits or deductions "for any monies paid for the purpose of taking care of the aged."

Rockefeller — Advocated "a broadly based system of health insurance for those over 65, financed by the fiscally sound, contributory payroll tax."

Tax reduction while there is a deficit:

Goldwater—"The answer to this would rest primarily on the rapidity of growth of the domestic economy."

Rockefeller—Said an immediate tax cut "designed to stimulate private investment and savings" and to increase consumers' after-tax income should be combined with "a strict policy of holding the line on federal government spending."

Balancing the budget annually:

Goldwater — "The federal budget can and should be balanced during each fiscal year, except during periods of . . . emergency."

'Bloody Nose' Defeat For Diem's Troopers

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —South Vietnamese and U.S. Army officers expected trouble when they planned a weekend attack on a Communist guerrilla unit deep in the Mekong Delta.

Their fears were well founded. South Vietnamese troops suffered their worst defeat in nine months. Government casualties were listed at 40 dead and 80 wounded, including 13 American wounded.

The government estimated enemy casualties at 30 dead. No prisoners were taken. Only four bodies were found.

The battle, termed by U.S. advisers "the bloodiest nose" given President Ngo Dinh Diem's forces since a similar defeat Jan. 2, took place in a remote area of rice paddies and palm groves near Loc Ninh, 140 miles southeast of Saigon.

A considerable distance from helicopter bases and out of reach of government artillery, the sector has long been infiltrated by guerrillas.

Entrenched in fortified positions, Viet Cong heavy machine guns cut up two waves of South Vietnamese troops carried in by U.S. helicopters.

Another government battalion brought in on foot failed to dislodge the Viet Cong's well-trained and well-equipped battalion. A third helicopter force was halted, too.

Legislator's Prank Call

OLD TOWN, Me. (AP) — A state representative is charged with allegedly telephoning a false bomb threat on the eve of President John F. Kennedy's visit to the University of Maine.

Rep. Robert C. Cartier (D-Biddeford) was arrested at a party Friday night.

Cartier, 24, last night called the incident a foolish mistake. He said he tried to rectify it moments later but could not reach the operator because all the lines apparently were tied up.

Police said Cartier told a telephone operator Friday evening the university stadium would be bombed that night.

Kennedy received an honorary degree and made an address at the stadium Saturday.

Cartier was arrested after Police Chief Otis LaBree was given the name of the street from which the call was made.

LaBree, two secret service agents and two state troopers made a house to house check and questioned 43 persons at a party they found in progress.

Cartier was released on $1,000 bail Saturday. Word of his arrest was withheld until yesterday because of security restrictions surrounding Kennedy's visit.

BEREAVED FRIEND—I'Lee Bailey, girl friend of swimmer James Small, arrived at Letterman General Hospital yesterday and broke down and sobbed when she was informed of the extent of Small's injuries. Behind her is Jim Baird, who narrowly missed the same fate as Small. Baird spotted the boat when it was five feet away.

MANGLED SWIMMER — James Small, still on a Coast Guard life raft which served as a temporary stretcher, is wheeled into Letterman General Hospital yesterday to undergo emergency surgery which required numerous pints of blood. He was in critical condition today.

Glenn F. Neumann of Oakland skipper of the boat, said he heard a bump and thought at first it was a piece of driftwood. A 30-foot pool of blood suddenly spread over the water.

Baird, 21, a University of California senior, swam to Small and hald him until two race officials, accompanying the swimmers in a rowboat, could grab the injured swimmer and haul him to a nearby fishing vessel.

Small was put on the Sea Raven, where crew members and party fishermen held their thumbs to his arteries to try to halt the flow of blood. He was transferred to the Coast Guard patrol boat which took him to Letterman Hospital at the Presidio.

Baird missed being slashed by the Pacific Dawn because, as he explained, he gasps for air on the left side—the side from which the boat approached. He said he saw the boat five feet away, dived and pushed away from its hull.

Small turns his head to the right to breath while swimming, and thus was looking out the Golden Gate as the boat cut over him.

Skipper Neumann said he "was trying to pick a spot in the mass of striper-fishing boats, and get through."

An investigation was launched by the Coast Guard's Office of Marine Inspection. The Coast Guard said it had not been notified of the race. Officials of San Francisco swimming clubs blamed the Coast Guard for not assigning a boat to guard the racers, which they said had been done in the past.

Small had won the same race in 1961 and 1962. A former Marine, he was graduate of University of California, where he was chairman of the athletic council and president of the Big C Society.

He starred in both swimming and water polo and held university records for the 440-yard and 1,500-meter free style races. He is employed as a customers man by the San Francisco investment firm of Bache and Co.

Marin Citian Treated For Deep Cut

A Marin City man was treated early yesterday for a deep cut on his left arm, and sheriff's deputies were still trying to determine today whether he was the man who apparently shoved his fist through the windshield of a parked car at Tamalpais High School the night before.

Ronald W. Kennedy, 20, of 1 Cole Drive, was too intoxicated to give officers a coherent statement when he was questioned at Marin General Hospital, according to Deputy Ray Tschirgi.

Patrick W. Byrne of 16 Hilarita Avenue, Mill Valley, said he was sitting in his car after a dance at the high school when he saw two men scuffling nearby.

The next thing he knew, he told Deputy Sheriff William J. Keaton Jr., something smashed the windshield. His date, Nancy D,. Partridge, 18, was cut on the leg by falling glass.

Byrne said he thought a rock had been thrown, but Keaton found hair and blood on the glass. One of the two men fighting fit the description of Kennedy.

Sleepy Hollow Homes Looted

Two Sleepy Hollow homes, across the street from each other, were looted during the weekend, sheriff's officers reported today.

A small bank containing $100.31 was reported missing from the home of Charles Samuel Lee at 120 Crane Drive. The burglar had removed the pins from hinges of a basement door, said Deputy Sheriff Dennis Shine.

William Murray Baxter reported 10 bottles of bourbon and four of gin, worth $65, were taken from his home at 101 Crane Drive. Baxter told Deputy Boyd Burnham he was moving into the house and boxes of liquor had been left where they could be seen from outside. Burnham said a sharp instrument was used to pry open the latch of a locked sliding door.

Burglar Steals, And Drops Ink

A burglar with ink-dropping habits broke into the home of H. S. Cottle in Mill Valley sometime between Oct. 13 and yesterday and took $163 in cash and personal belongings.

Cottle told police at 2:01 p.m. yesterday that someone had cut a screen door on his back porch at 263 Miller Avenue, then entered through an unlocked kitchen door.

Taken were $5 in change from a "piggy bank," a gold hearing aid, 60 "dated American pennies," a pocket watch, a dagger, and a fork and knife set.

The burglar, Cottle told officers, went to Cottle's bed, pulled the blankets off of it and then dropped ink onto the sheets. Cottle estimated his loss at $163.

Oroville Wood Treating Plant Fire Kills Man

OROVILLE (AP) — A man was killed in a series of explosions and intense fire that leveled the big Koppers Co. wood treating plant two miles south of here yesterday.

Arthur McCandless, 48, only employee on duty when a chemical tank exploded, crawled 150 feet through the flames. He died six hours later in an Oroville hospital.

Four Youngsters Bitten By Dogs Over Weekend

Four youngsters were reported bitten by dogs over the weekend in Mill Valley.

Mrs. William H. Bay of 21 Millay Place reported to police at 3:30 p.m. yesterday that her son had been bitten by a dog owned by John M. Kennedy Jr. of 53 Millay Place. At 1:30 p.m., Norman Woodbury, 9 Olive St., reported his stepson, Scott, had been bitten by a dog owned by N. S. Haines, 180 Cascade Avenue at 12:30 p.m.

Saturday at 6:25 p.m., C. O. Mannes of 45 Juanita Avenue reported his son, Charles, 13, had been bitten on the left ankle by a black dog. At 5:25 p.m. Francis Orella reported his son, John, 13, was bitten near the right wrist by a german shepherd dog while he was collecting on his newspaper route at 171 Ethel Avenue.

Bolinas Bond Worries Three

Will taxes jump higher should the $75,000 bond issue to improve the water system on Bolinas Mesa be approved in the Nov. 5 election?

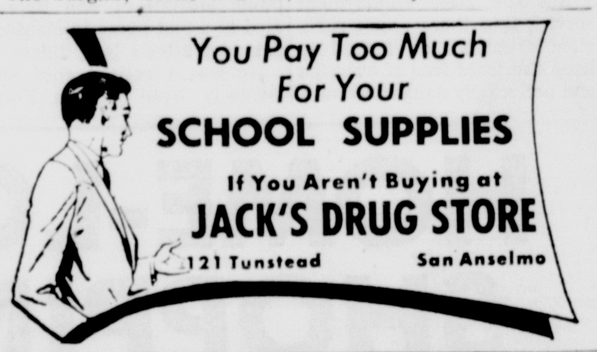

This was the main concern of the three residents who attended a special meeting of Bolinas Beach Public Utility District directors Saturday to ask questions about the proposed new system.

"Taxes could be lowered by next year," vice chairman Robert Bairt said, "because the bonds extend over a 16-year period."

Proposed is a new tank to be built on Mesa Road to replace the four existing tanks with a total capacity of 85,000 gallons.

High Court Vacates Genovese Conviction

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today ordered reconsideration of the narcotics conviction of Vito Genovese, recently named as "boss of all bosses" of the Cosa Nostra underworld syndicate.

The brief order vacated the 1959 convictions of Genovese and nine co-defendants. The 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals was directed to look at the cases again in light of a Supreme Court decision last term.

Underworld informer Joseph Valachi has said that the 65-year-old crime figure is operating his criminal empire from prison through three lieutenants who dare not disobey him.

Genovese and the others sought a new trial on the ground that one of the government's witnesses, Nelson Cantellops, had recanted some of his trial testimony. They also contended that the government had erred in not making available to the trial judge certain interview notes by a justice department prosecutor.

In other actions today, the supreme court:

Reversed the convictions of 373 Negro students found guilty of breach of the peace for demonstrating against segregation policies at Orangeburg, S.C., in 1960. The court had sent the case back to South Carolina last term for rehearing and the state supreme court had upheld the convictions. Today's brief order was a summary reversal of the state action.

Denied hearings to two men sentenced to death in Virginia and Alabama for rape. Justice Arthur J. Goldberg dissented in the dismissal of appeals of Frank Jimmy Snider Jr. and Frank Lee Rudolph. Goldberg, declaring review should have been granted, said the court should decide whether the constitution permits imposition of the death penalty "on a convicted rapist who has neither taken nor endangered human life."

Agreed to hear arguments on a challenge to Delaware's recent legislature reapportionment. Four cases from other states also will be heard this year.

Granted a hearing to Jesse James Arnold and George Dixon, two Negroes sentenced to death for a 1961 robbery-murder in North Carolina. Their appeal said systematic exclusion of Negroes from the grand jury invalidated the indictment.

Denied a hearing to Troy Bland Cade, a self-described "Black Muslim" who was convicted of flag descration in Louisiana. Cade contended that the charge, if true, constituted an offense against the federal government rather than the state which tried him.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market cut away many gains and showed an irregular pattern at the close. Trading was heavy.

Thanks to gains by a number of blue chips, the market averages were probably still slightly higher, even though many stocks had surrendered their gains.

Du Pont, which weighs heavily in the market indicators, was up about 4 points.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.4 million shares compared with 5.84 million Friday.

Kenny Knew It Was Coming

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Weather naturally got into the act when federal officials presented a 35-year service pin to Howard Kenny at Port Columbus Airport, where he is meteorologist-in-charge of a U. S. weather bureau.

While presentation ceremonies were in progress, a severe thunderstorm — forecast by Kenny and his staff—struck the area.

Few Hawaiian Tree Trimmers

HONOLULU (AP) — There are so many coconut trees in Hawaii that there aren't enough people to keep them trimmed.

Trimming of trees on public streets and parks is necessary to prevent sore heads and dented cars — the nuts aren't particular where they fall.

But the state employment service said there aren't sufficient trimmers on hand to keep the trees free of overripe and potentially dangerous nuts.

County Counsel Aide, Wife Parents Again

Asst. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney became a father for the fifth time Friday.

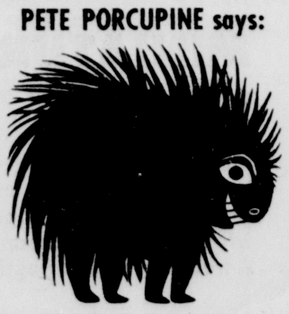

His wife, Arlene, gave birth to a 7½ pound girl Friday night at Novato General Hospital. Both the mother and child were "doing fine" today.

City Park Idea

A report on the possibility of turning the old Novato cemetery on Simmons Lane into a city park will be made to the Novato parks and recreation advisory commission at 8 o'clock tonight in the community house. Edmund Mahany, parks and recreation director, will give the report.

OBITUARIES

Rites Held For Victim Of Accident

Funeral services have been held for Thorwald L. Le Doux, 15, of Forest Knolls, who died Friday night of multiple head and chest injuries after his motor scooter was struck by a car on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Woodacre.

Le Doux, a freshman at Sir Francis Drake High School, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delphin J. Le Doux. He was a native of San Rafael.

Surviving are his parents; a sister, Marylee Kristine Le Doux of Woodacre; and grandparents, Lars Petersen of South Dakota and Mrs. Jensine Petersen of Marin City.

Private family services were held at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Cremation was at Mount Tamalpais Crematory.

LOUIS BIANCHINI

Private funeral services were held Saturday for Louis P. Bianchini, 63, brother of Mrs. Olga Nardi of San Rafael. Bianchini died at a local hospital Friday after a long illness.

A Requiem Mass was offered at St. Peter and Paul's Church in San Francisco. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Nardi of San Rafael and Mrs. Emma McGorian of San Francisco and a brother, Mario I. Bianchini. The family prefers that memorial contributions be to the United Cancer Fund.

EMIL MORETTI

A Requiem Mass will be offered for Emil Moretti, 73, of Manteca, San Joaquin County, at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Moretti, uncle of Miss Anna Moretti of San Rafael and brother-in-law of Mrs. Josephine Moretti of San Rafael, died at a rest home in Manteca Saturday after a long illness.

He was a retired chef and formerly lived in San Francisco. A native of Switzerland, he had lived in California for 33 years.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Bessie Murray of Fort Lee, N. J., and Mrs. Bina Miller, River Edge, N. J., a sister, Mrs. Sylvia Tonini of Newark, N. J.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

JAMES BARNARD

Graveside funeral services for James R. Barnard, 76, of 396 Hibiscus Way, Terra Linda, will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Barnard, a resident of Marin County for four years, died Saturday in a local hospital after a short illness. He came to the county after retiring as a civil engineer for the State of New York.

He was a graduate of the class of 1909 from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and a member of Theta Xi fraternity. Barnard was a native of Honeoye Falls, N.Y.

He is survived by his wife, Kathleen; two sons and one daughter, James Barnard of San Mateo, John Barnard of Rockford, Ill., and Mrs. Barbara Kaven of Terra Linda; a brother, Frank Barnard of New York, seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

DORIS GUTTMAN

Private family funeral services have been held for Mrs. Doris Ann Guttman, 52, of 80 Fairway Drive, San Rafael, who died Friday at a local hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Guttman was the wife of Dr. Martin C. Guttman, a dentist practicing in San Francisco.

A native of England, she had been a resident of Marin County for 17 years and of California for 35 years.

Surviving are her husband; two sons, Donald W. Guttman and Robert M. Guttman of San Rafael; her parents, Ralph and Ann Walton of Mill Valley, and a sister, Mrs. Irene Snare of Spearfish, S.D.

The family prefers that memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

TALENTED DOG CHANGES HANDS

A girl from Woodacre and a boy from Anchorage, Alaska, had one thing in common when they met at the graduation ceremonies of the Guide Dogs for the Blind Inc. on Oct. 12. Mary Gilstrap of 59 Madrone Avenue raised Rhyme, a German shepherd, from the time when he was 12 weeks old. She returned him to the San Rafael school where he was given to Tony Johnson. Mary raised the dog as a 4-H Club project.

Police Are Still Investigating Women's Attacker

San Rafael police have found no definite clues on which to pin their investigation of the youth who attacked two women on downtown San Rafael streets, it was reported today.

Inspector Thomas Cheetham said, "We are investigating every lead we can, but we have found nothing definite. There have been some rumors, but that's all."

The attacker, described as being in his late teens and wearing a beige car coat and black pants, robbed Mrs. Reba Van Allen Kelly, of 519 Fifth Avenue, of $80 on Oct. 8 and Mrs. Rokuko Nott of 210 H Street, of $1.30 on Oct. 11.

In both cases, the youth knocked the women down from behind and then made off with their purses. Both purses, with the money missing, were later recovered.

Key Staff Changes Made At Air Base

Expansion of the Western Communications Region with headquarters at Hamilton Air Force Base from eight to 16 western states brought eight major changes in key staff officers, it was announced by Col. Davis S. Woods, region commander.

The new directors and staff officers are: Col. William A. Lafrenz, director of telecommunications; Col. Paul Gawthorp, director of logistics; Lt. Col. John C. Nichols, director of flight facilities; Lt. Col. Robert M. Brewer, director of plans and programs; Lt. Col. Ivan F. Mustain, director of personnel; Lt. Col. Milton B. Skelton, chief of the Air Force reserve division; Lt. Col. Alfred P. Mallet, assistant for Air National Guard affairs, and Maj. William R. Wassner, headquarters squadron commander.

Colonel Lafrenz came to Hamilton from Wheeler Air Force Base, Hawaii. He was deputy commander of the Pacific Communications area there. He is a graduate of the University of California where he received his commission through the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Program there.

Colonel Gawthorp came to the Western Communications Region from Malmstrom Air Force Base, Mont., where he was the commander of the Missile Maintenance Squadron of the First Minuteman Wing. He has also served as chief of munitions in the Strategic Air Command headquarters for three years.

Lieutenant Colonel Nichols came from the Pacific Communications area. There he served as deputy chief of staff for flight facilities.

Lieutenant Colonel Brewer came to Hamilton directly from Air Force Communications Service headquarters at Scott Air Force Base, Ill., where he was assistant deputy chief of staff for operations. Recently he was awarded the First Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Force Commendation Medal.

Lieutenant Colonel Mustain came to Hamilton also from the Air Force Communications Service headquarters where he was the executive officer for Maj. Gen. Kenneth P. Bergquist, commander. Prior to that, he was the executive officer at European-African-middle Eastern Communications Area headquarters at Wiesbaden Air Base, Germany.

Lieutenant Colonel Skelton was commander of the 4067th Communications Squadron at George Air Force Base, San Bernardino County, before coming to Hamilton.

Lieutenant Colonel Mallet already serves in the Western Communications Region headquarters as the special advisor to the region commander on Air National Guard affairs.

Major Wessner was with the 1850th Facility Checking Flight at Hamilton before it was deactivated earlier this year. He just returned from six months duty with the Federal Aviation Agency in Los Angeles.

Cal-Vet Property Tax Bills Are Due

After Nov. 1, Cal-Vet home owners can get property tax bills from the tax collector and forward the bills with an application form to the Division of Farm and Home Purchases of the California Department of Veterans Affairs for payment, according to J. V. Burdick, county service officer.

The application forms are being mailed out to veterans, Burdick said.

Marin Climbs To No. 1 In Bay Area Crusade

Marin has climbed to the Bay Area's No. 1 spot in the 1963 United Crusade drive, Charles J. Francis, campaign chairman, announced at turn-in luncheon Friday at Sabella's Restaurant, Alto.

With contributions totaling $61,905, Marin has reached 40 per cent of its $155,344 goal, Francis said.

Closest to Marin is San Francisco, with 26.6 per cent of goal. The other three counties in the United Bay Crusade trail with percentages ranging from 21 to 12 per cent.

The public employees division, first to go over its quota, has climbed to 108 per cent with donations totaling $6,493, Michael Mitichel, chairman, announced.

Second highest is the business division, which has a total of $13,338, or 74 per cent of quota, it was announced by William P. Murray Jr., chairman. He cited three cities for outstanding work: San Rafael, where Bryce Ashton is chairman and the total is $4,780; Mill Valley, Ed Pederson, chairman, total $1,675, and the Belvedere - Tiburon Peninsula, Howard Allen, chairman, total $827.

Other division standings announced yesterday are: special gifts, $14,860, or 57 per cent; professional, $8,464, or 45 per cent; commerce and industry, $12,256, or 40 per cent; West Marin, $1,056, or 33 per cent; construction, $1,361, or 23 per cent; education, $1,029, or 8 per cent.

In the first report from the residential division campaign, Mrs. Robert Kettenbach, chairman, said that the total stood at $3,048. She added that her division expects to be over the top by Oct. 28 meeting.

In the commercial and industrial division, two firms were cited for big increases in employee gifts: Marin County Savings & Loan Association, 300 per cent increase, and Macy's, 50 per cent increase.

Pay Report Deadline

The deadline for filing California unemployment insurance wage reports and contributions for the third quarter of 1963 is Oct. 31, according to Charles J. Brady, auditor at the State Department of Employment office in San Rafael. Penalty and interest will be charged if the report is filed after the deadline, he said.

More Sheriff Patrols Asked In 'Loot Wave'

A petition with 19 signatures was presented today to the Marin County sheriff's office asking for more police protection to stem "the current wave of thefts and auto vandalism."

Presented with the petition was a letter from Frank Shirado, president of the Almonte District Improvement Club, protesting the "serious problem of vandalism and burglaries in the last few weeks." Members decided to ask for more patrols at their Saturday meeting.

Shirado asked for more sheriff's patrols of the area and better street lighting. He said only one sheriff's car patrols the area at present.

The patrols, he said, were needed on Cleveland Avenue from 11 p.m. to 2 a.m. when most of the thefts and acts of vandalism are committed.

David Elliott Stovel of 254 Cleveland Avenue, who carried the petition to the sheriff's office, said homes were broken into, car radios stolen, and two convertible car tops slashed in his neighborhood Friday night.

He said a "teen-age lover's lane" at the end of Cleveland Avenue was the cause of most of the trouble.

Mill Valleyan Hurt In Auto Accident

Susan Dickinson of Mill Valley was reported in "fair condition" today at Marin General Hospital following an accident Saturday at 9:30 p.m., when the car she was driving reportedly ran off the roadway and struck a tree at 254 Miller Avenue.

Miss Dickinson, who lives at 85 Sycamore Avenue, was treated for cuts on her face and right knee and multiple bruises.

Two Burned In Boat Blast 'Satisfactory'

Otis T. Bradley, 52, of La Puente, was reported in fair condition at Marin General Hospital with burns on both arms and his face. Dr. Nelson J. Howard, 63, of San Francisco was in satisfactory condition at Presbyterian Medical Center, San Francisco, with burns on his chest and arms.

Fireman Robert Wallerman of the Tiburon Fire Department, said the explosion at 12:35 p.m. Saturday was caused by fumes of gasoline from a leaking five-gallon can on the 28-foot sloop.

Wallerman said both men had just climbed on the boat and each was lighting up, one a cigarette and the other a pipe.

Howard was blown into the water by the blast.

Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher estimated damage to the boat at $100, caused mainly by fire, which scorched the floorboards and blistered varnish in the cabin.

Muir Woods Parking Lot Hit By Thieves

The thief who has been taking things from cars parked at the Muir Woods parking lot hit again during the weekend, sheriff's officers reported today.

Barbara Janet Langille, of San Bernardino, told Deputy Sheriff Boyd Burnham that $30 in cash and 24 blank checks were taken from her purse. She said the car was unlocked.

Pill Overdose Report

Diane Lois May, 21, of 617 Galerita Way, Santa Venetia, was reported in good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital after being treated last night for a possible overdose of phenobarbital.

Sheeks Says Almcrants Problem Near Solution

"We are on the verge of resolving the (Almcrants) problem in a manner which will serve the best interests of the city, the city manager and the council," Joseph E. Sheeks, mayor of Mill Valley, said today.

He said he has had several discussions with the recently formed Mill Valley Citizens Committee and, he added, "the frank exchange of views has been helpful to all concerned."

Sheeks refered to the controversy around the threatened firing of City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants. Almcrants resigned Oct. 27, withdrew his resignation Oct. 30 and, following this, Sheeks, councilmen George D. Monardo and Wiliam M. Secor said they planned to oust Almcrants at tonight's meeting of the city council.

Sheeks said he has been informed of a rumor circulating in Mill Valley that the council has a successor picked out for Almcrants to take his chair tomorrow. "I can say categorically this is an out and out falsehood," the mayor declared.

$150 Taken From Car

Ambulance Arrives For Novato Service

Novato got its ambulance service Saturday.

Michael Manick had planned to station an ambulance at the Novato No. 2 fire station starting last Tuesday, but the vehicle was wrecked in San Francisco on its way to Novato. A borrowed ambulance arrived Saturday, however, Manick reported, and answered four private calls over the weekend.

Headless Peter, a drummer boy who was robbed and beheaded a few centuries ago, is said to appear regularly at Dover Castle, England, beating a ghostly tattoo as he marches through the corridors.

Man, Woman Are Suspected Of $1,000 Larkspur Theft

A man and woman from San Francisco were booked into Marin County Jail today on suspicion of the $1,000 burglary early yesterday of the Larkspur apartment of a man who himself was in jail in San Francisco.

Jailed were Bunny Violet Breeding (alias Smith), 32, five-foot and 200 pounds on probation for burglary and receiving stolen goods in San Francisco, and Robert Gene Jochum, 21, who said he came from Missouri six weeks ago.

Police Chief Howard Clark of Larkspur said, two witnesses identified Miss Breeding as the heavy set woman they saw with a smaller person ransacking the apartment of Ron Malstrom, 30-year-old service station attendant, at 30 Locust Avenue.

Malstrom was in San Francisco jail at the time, awaiting appearance in traffic court today on a charge of ignoring a number of traffic warrants, San Francisco police advised Clark.

The witnesses, two women living in the same apartment house, told patrolmen Edward McClintick and James D. Neubert they saw the woman tossing furnishings from a landing down to another person on the ground, who loaded them into a small box trailer fastened to an aqua and white coupe about 4:15 a.m. yesterday. They saw the car head south down Magnolia Avenue.

The burglary was reported at 5:15 p.m. yesterday by Carl Nilsen of 325 Oakdale Avenue, Corte Madera, owner of the apartments. The loss consisted of furnishings including a portable television set and stereo turntable belonging to Nilsen.

About 7:30 p.m. yesterday as he entered the police station, McClintick saw a car and trailer answering to the description heading north on Magnolia Avenue. McClintick and Patrolman George Newman trailed the car and arrested the two occupants.

Marinite Injured In Crash Fatal To 2

A Greenbrae school administrator escaped with minor injuries Saturday in a head-on auto crash on the Park-Presidio bridge approach in San Francisco that took the lives of two 15-year-old San Francisco boys.

Richard L. Foster, 45, of 63 Almenar Drive, superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School District in Daly City and former Marin County superintendent of schools, suffered cuts of the scalp, forehead and right knee. He was treated at Park Emergency Hospital after the crash and sent home. Mrs. Foster reported today that he was in good condition and went to work.

William Yee of 2326 Cabrillo Street and Anthony Yuen of 683 23rd Avenue died at San Francisco General Hospital yesterday of injuries suffered in the crash.

They were passengers in a car southbound driven by Arthur L. Dulberg, 17, also of San Francisco, which swung across the center line and crashed head-on into the Foster car, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Both boys were thrown from the Dulberg car and Foster was thrown from his car. Dulberg was uninjured.

Two-Car Crash Injures Woman

Mrs. Francis Williams, 48, of 145 King Street, Larkspur, suffered a chest bruise Friday evening in a two-car crash on Madera Boulevard just outside the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Corte Madera police reported Mrs. Williams was a passenger in a car driven by Ronald Blum, 21, who lives at the same address. Blum is a shortstop with the Chicago Cubs farm system. He played this year with St. Cloud, Minn., in the Northern Baseball League.

Patrolman Charles Rester said Blum's car was hit in the side by one driven by Robert Groat, 25, of 45 Tamal Vista Road, San Rafael. Neither driver was injured. Mrs. Williams was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Water Session

A resolution amending the condemnation proceeding complaint against the Beverly Maple Corp. for purchase of the Sunset tank site was passed at a special meeting Saturday of the North Marin County Water District board.

Marinite Receives Commerce Citation

Samuel N. Mercer of 45 Spring Lane, Tiburon, received a citation last week from Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges for his two years of service to the United States Travel Service.

Mercer was a member of the Travel Advisory Committee to the Department of Commerce. He is assistant vice president in passenger traffic with American President Lines.

Novato Art Show Winners Are Announced

"China Bay" by Madelaine Lange was voted the best picture of the 236 paintings displayed yesterday in the Novato Community House in the fall art show sponsored by the Novato Art Guild.

"Emerald Waves" by Vida Justinak took second place. "Pirate House" by Kay Kettle, and "Mary Elizabeth," a portrait by Marian Papineau tied for third place in the voting by the 400 who attended.

Children attending the show voted "The Fountain" by Kay Kettle as their favorite painting.

The show was thrown into chaos yesterday morning when display boards which had been ordered from Mill Valley failed to arrive, said Mrs. Richard Whitney, chairman. Members of the art guild pitched in to hang the pictures on the community house walls and place them on the stage and in the center of the auditorium leaning against chairs.

Navigation Talk

Lt. Cmdr. R. F. Niblock of the Naval Reserve will talk about "Navigation and Piloting" at a meeting of Naval Reserve Composite Nnit 12-7 at Room 35, College of Marin, at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Young Woman's Torso Found Off Pt. Reyes

The torso of a young women was found floating in the ocean yesterday off Point Reyes, with no hint of identification.

Coast Guard vessel picked up the badly decomposed torso about a half-mile north of the Point Reyes lighthouse and turned it over to the Marin County coroner's office. Pathologist Dr. Warren L. Bostick reported the body portion was that of a woman 18 to 30 years old.

Mrs. Karen Williams, 20, of San Francisco was missing and presumed drowned Sept. 15 after a 35-foot cabin cruiser smashed on the rocks near Point Reyes. Her husband, James, and R. H. Lemon, owner of the boat, swam to shore. She was last seen trying to reach shore in the same area where the torso was found yesterday.

Woman Arrested For Bad Checks

Betty Martinez, 28, of San Francisco, was arrested on a bad check charge Saturday by Novato police and booked into Marin County jail with bail set at $1,050.

She passed in excess of $50 in worthless checks to Novato merchants, said police Chief Roy McLaren. She is wanted in several other bay area cities on similar charges, McLaren said.

Tank Drivers

Army Pfc. George Benning, son of Mrs. W. L. Dunivent of 35B Valley Road, Mill Valley, and Pfc. Gerald Q. Vivier, son of Mrs. Elsie K. Vivier of 565 Canal Street, San Rafael, are stationed at Fort Hood, Tex. Both are tank drivers in the First Armored Division's 16th Engineer Battalion.

Only A Ripple From Tidal Wave

Deputies again knocked on doors in Stinson Beach early Saturday to warn residents of an impending tidal wave from an earthquake near Japan. Again only a ripple arrived.

Notification of the wave was made to both the sheriff's office and the county civil defense office at about 1:30 a.m., with the wave expected to hit at 3:40 a.m. No one was evacuated. At 3:45 a.m. an all clear was sent out by the state civil defense office.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

DAILY Independent-Journal Est. 1861
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

8 EDITORIAL PAGE Monday, Oct. 21, 1963 San Rafael, Calif.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Our Selective Service Board Should Have Recognition

Three fine citizens of Marin County ought to have their names in the newspaper, we feel. They are:

Frank B. Williams of Sausalito.
Neil K. McIsaacs of Novato.
Eugene A. Ostaggi of Ross.

Why should they get their names in the paper, modesty perhaps to the contrary notwithstanding?

The reason is clear. They comprise the membership of the Selective Service System board for this county, a public function of intimate nature, comparable to our judges and probably rather ahead of our supervisors, planners and other officials of importance to us all.

But why go to any special bother to bring their names into the light of day?

Simply because of rather chance discovery, due to a reader but followed through by a representative of the Independent-Journal, indicating a strange kinship between these officials and the humble blushing violet.

In short when somebody wanted to find out who they were he got a royal run-around, starting with the San Rafael office of Selective Service and continuing at accelerated pace with the San Francisco upper office to which the San Rafael office pitch-forks inquirers with scant ceremony.

At any rate, truth finally emerged from the smog initially emitted by the San Francisco office.

It was beyond denial that in a democracy, no policy of secrecy could stand against determined and informed pressure. But before the names were reluctantly dredged forth, as though those of criminals rather than of distinguished public servants, our representative had to take a lot of paternalistic bilge which nobody in the United States should be asked to stomach.

Reluctance to give the information was candidly admitted with no apologies. Reasons for the reluctance were diffuse and unconvincing.

In general the idea was that if these people were known they might be subjected to telephone calls or other forms of persuasion against the rightful fulfillment of their duties.

We have a higher opinion of the three Marin board members. We are convinced that they are upright, men of courage, and incapable of cowering in a funk-hole.

We believe they are as capable of standing up for themselves as are our judges, supervisors, planners, even editors, all of whom are known and who frequently find themselves subjected to pressures personal and telephonic.

Men who send youngsters to face the foe surely have courage enough, themselves, to face the parents.

Or if we're wrong (which seems impossible in this matter, at any rate), high time the public had a good look at the whole deal.

Bagley Will 'Try, Try Again'

Another effort is to be made by Assemblyman Bill Bagley to empower Marin County to form its own rapid transit district if such is found desirable.

This is right and proper. Governor Brown's pocket veto of an earlier measure was due to the same cause adduced by the great lexicographer Samuel Johnson for his error in defining a horse's pastern as its knee in his famed dictionary. ("Ignorance, madame, sheer ignorance" was what the candid doctor told a female inquirer.)

That our governor should emulate Johnson's frankness concerning his lack of information about why Marin isn't in the Bay Area Rapid Transit District is too much to expect, of course.

But possibly Bagley can succeed in another try. It is just as well, perhaps, that the governor does not always pay careful attention to business about which he doesn't always keep himself thoroughly informed.

NEW WASHINGTON SHRINE

Wilson's Last Home Opened To Capital Visitors Today

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Beginning today, there is another shrine for Washington tourists: Woodrow Wilson's last home.

It's a handsome red brick house of Georgian design at 2340 S Street in northwest Washington.

There the World War I president lived from March 4, 1921 when he left the White House until he died Feb. 3, 1924.

It is a memorial to a marriage as well as to a statesman.

AMONG THE RELICS the visitors see is the high-backed, leather-covered chair used by Wilson at White House Cabinet meetings. On the back is a card in Wilson's handwriting which reads:

"Presented to my dear wife whose inspiration meant so much while I occupied this chair, Woodrow Wilson."

She was Edith Bolling Galt Wilson, whose will on her death in 1961 gave the house to the National Trust for Historic Preservation to be a memorial in honor of her husband. The National Trust has now prepared it for the public.

WILSON BOUGHT the house sight unseen in 1920 as he was preparing to turn the White House over to Warren G. Harding. He knew Mrs. Wilson wanted it; she had found it while house-hunting.

"The only house I felt would qualify in every particular."

Mrs. Wilson wrote in her memoirs 18 years later:

"Bless his dear heart! I was overcome."

SHE ALSO TOLD how, the first day they visited the house together, the president had a Secret Service man scoop up a small piece of sod "which, with a key to one of the doors, my husband presented to me—the sod representing the land, and the key the house."

It was an old Scottish custom, that the Scot-descended Wilson remembered.

Mrs. Wilson, whom the president married in 1915 after the death of his first wife, described in her memoirs the suffering that Wilson went through after his paralytic stroke in 1919.

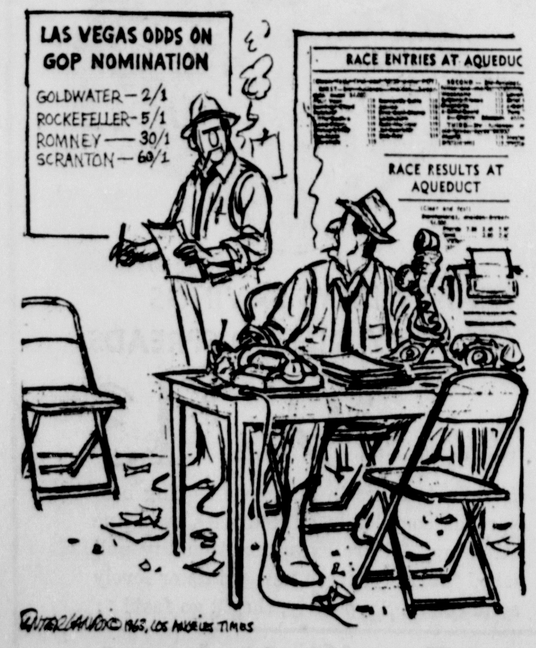

IN THE pleasant house on S Street there were no great matters of national urgency, but Mrs. Wilson maintained to the end a close watch over her beloved invalid.

One of the memories she treasured over the years was of their arrival in S Street just after Harding had been inaugurated, and the Wilsons' days of glory were over.

"We almost wept," Mrs. Wilson said.

A Correction On Monkey Business

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wish to correct your description of the capture of Saffron, the monkey.

It was I who fetched the pruning pole, and it was I who caught the monkey in my suit coat. Not officer Loane.

The officer did indeed spend fruitless hours in pursuit but he did not succeed because he did not use his head.

A Tip, Maybe More For Bill Seeger

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A long time back I was instructed that there abides more than one way to skin a cat. The first thing to do is to catch the cat. After that things may proceed in any of several directions, sometimes simultaneously.

Marin Water Co. does not need purchase water from any source other than their own watershed, not now, not ever. Three times the present water being used can be produced for the same all-purpose uses now supplied.

Mr. Seeger never heard of the manner by which this can be accomplished. I will be very glad to instruct him in all details, large and small, at my present address and at any time (s) that are convenient to Mr. Seeger and his engineers.

Outside of complete independence from any master steal upon the part of state or outer county plans, the funds spent for development would all be spent in Marin County, in salaries paid to Marin County citizens and all development structures would be permanent and the property of Marin Water Company.

Urologists may be forced to close some offices in the county, due to lack of patients, water borne diseases may diminish or disappear, the county board of health may relax somewhat in their constant vigilance, lawns may be a little greener, stock forage may be a little more plentiful, flowers and trees somewhat fuller in foliage and flower, food slightly more palatable, human life a little longer, slightly more virile and somewhat happier, but otherwise I see little of danger offered by such integral water production, containment and treatment as is readily provided for here.

Mr. Seeger? Perhaps a statue for him in due time.

It is not seemly to offer more here, since Mr. Thierbach has failed to prove the most perfunctory of interest in such mundane matters and has failed to accept my proffer to him of the information mentioned already herein. But in case that Mr. Seeger, and the stockholders of the Marin Water Co., the users of their product and other civic minded persons are interested, the information is here, it costs only the time to call for an appointment and the indoctrination into the knowledge. The telephone number is in the book, under my name.

Zoning Is Opposed In Terra Linda

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As home owners in Terra Linda Valley, my wife and myself oppose zoning the Northgate Drive-Nova Albion Way 82-acre hill in Terra Linda as P. C. or multiple unit dwellings.

The following are adequate reasons:

1. Existing and even planned roads in the area and connecting with access to the high school are now crowded and will be overloaded when the Northgate Center is complete.

2. Our part of Marin is best kept single dwelling, for this is the only way to preserve our natural contours and beaty. Shall we become like the L. A. Slurbs?

3. Our schools are now overloaded—does Draper or any of the other speculators care about this? They do not!

4. Zoning of this type invades our prior rights as a neighborhood of the family type. We wish to retain our present home flavor.

Privileges Are Not Rights

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This letter is in response to a letter captioned, "a Catholic view of the schools." The writer protested that it is discrimination that keeps the taxpayers from providing bus transportation for parochial school children.

The provision of the best possible public schools is the duty of the American taxpayer. All children have the right to attend these tuition-free schools.

If parents wish to send their children to private or parochial schools rather than to the schools provided for them that is their privilege. If this privilege entails financial obligations, this is a burden the parents must decide to bear.

These parents should not confuse rights with privileges.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

There was a fire in the kitchen of an off-Broadway chop house recently, but it was speedily extinguished by Manhattan's crack fire laddies. Two of the latter exited from the water-gutted premises when the excitement was over with axes in their grasp. The blase barber next door spotted them and observed to the customer he was shaving, "They must have ordered a steak in that joint!"

After John Mason Brown had concluded one of his bright, never-failing speeches, a little white-haired lady hobbled up to the podium to tell him how wonderful she thought he was. "I make bold to tell you this," she whispered, "because you said you loved old ladies." "I do, I do," nodded Brown, his Kentucky charm working overtime, "but I also adore them your age."

Californians Might Give Nixon Support For Presidency, View

WASHINGTON — "What I don't understand," remarked the U. S. senator, "is why you newspapermen are so consistently overlooking the logical and probable 1964 Republican presidential nominee—at least the logical and probable alternative to Sen. Goldwater."

"What," I asked, "makes you say we are overlooking the 'logical and probable' nominee? After Mr. Goldwater, Gov. Romney figures strongly in the polls.

"Gov. Rockefeller isn't to be ruled out unless he loses one or two important primaries. Gov. Scranton is a 'logical' alternative name. Then there are Sens. Morton and Kuchel and Gov. Hatfield. Even Harold Stassen gets a mention now and then. Whom are we overlooking?"

"I AGREE," replied the senator, "that Mr. Goldwater has a formidable lead. But I think that in the end the Republican convention will not nominate him because, as I see it, his views do not reflect either the consensus of the party or of the country.

"Neither Romney nor Scranton are ready. They just can't acquire the stature in the next nine months.

"The others you name are dark horses who aren't going to get any lighter. You see—"

"Well," I broke in, "out with it. Who is this 'logical and probable' alternative nominee nobody is mentioning?"

"IT'S RICHARD NIXON. Don't you realize—"

"You're fooling."

"No, I'm not fooling. He's the only Republican who could unite the party and have a fair chance of defeating President Kennedy."

"How could he defeat President Kennedy when he couldn't defeat Sen. Kennedy? If he couldn't win the presidency at the peak of his prestige as vice president, how could he win after losing both the presidency and the governorship of California?"

"THAT'S WHERE you political writers are too quick with your opinions. Nixon carried California for the presidency, lost it for the governorship. He lost the governorship because he had been out of the state too long to be on top of California problems and issues.

"That doesn't prove that Californians would not again vote for him for president."

"But look how Sen. Kennedy flattened him in the TV debates. Mr. Kennedy would be stronger in debate after four years' experience in the White House. Why wouldn't it be the same as before — only more so?"

"I am by no means sure it would be the same as before. There are several reasons it might be different. Nixon would be on the offensive, not on the defensive. He could question, criticize, and attack.

"HE WOULD NOT have to defend the whole record of the Eisenhower administration, as he did in 1960. He would have a number of valid issues in placing Kennedy's promises alongside his performance."

"What issues?"

"Well, there are quite a few and they deeply concern the American people. There is the unresolved issue of Cuba—the failure of the Bay of Pigs invasion for which the U. S. was partly responsible and the continuing presence of Soviet forces in the Western hemisphere.

"Mr. Kennedy advocated larger aid to anti-Castro Cubans both inside and outside Cuba and it has not been forthcoming. There is the continuing rise of military regimes in Latin America and the increasing danger of the spread of communism. There is high unemployment in times of general prosperity plus the acute problem of the unfavorable balance of payments.

"I BELIEVE that Nixon could use these issues and use them more tellingly than any other Republican nominee. Mr. Kennedy was on the attack in 1960; Mr. Nixon would be on the attack in 1964 and nearly every issue used against Nixon the first time could be fairly turned against the president next year."

"But hasn't Nixon decisively taken himself out of elective politics since moving to New York?"

"Only in the sense that he could not seek the nomination. But the nomination could seek him."

I am not nominating any candidate, but reporting an interview with a U. S. senator.

REMEMBER WHEN?

Trustees of Tamalpais Union High School called for a state survey to determine structural soundness of Mill Valley's 45-year-old Tamalpais High School.

Fifteen Mill Valley residents were working on a special census, getting six cents a name on a special census of population increase of their city. The figure in 1950 was 7,331.

20 YEARS AGO

The W. George Weaver chain of four Marin County weeklies including the San Anselmo Herald, the Fairfax Gazette, the West Marin Star and the Larkspur-Corte Madera News was taken over by H. R. Butler with Bernice E. Freeman named managing editor of all four.

Mrs. Robert L. Bridges was sponsor as the Marinship tanker SS Mission San Jose slid down the ways in Sausalito.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Philadelphia Pits J.F.K. Against Goldwater

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The sizzling mayoralty battle in Philadelphia may become an indirect clash between President Kennedy and his foremost Republican opponent, Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Under strong urging of the campaign managers of Democratic Mayor James Tate, the president has tentatively agreed to address a fund-raising dinner there on October 30. Barring a crisis, the president has said he will be there.

Several weeks ago Senator Goldwater in a Pennsylvania talk castigated Tate and urged the election of his Republican opponent, James McDermott, 37-year-old lawyer. Goldwater declared a McDermott victory would greatly strengthen GOP chances of carrying the key industrial state in 1964.

TATE'S STRATEGISTS stressed this challenge in their pleas to the president to come to Philadelphia. They want him to endorse Tate, holding this will "ensure" his election.

A deciding factor in the president's decision to go to Philadelphia was the urging of Rep. William Green, Democratic leader there.

Green piled up a huge majority for Kennedy in 1960 that enabled him to carry Pennsylvania by a close margin.

A MILITARY COUP in oil-rich, Communist-threatened Venezuela will be immediately countered by armed U. S. intervention.

Unlike Honduras and the Dominican Republic, where U. S. reaction against the recent coups consisted of withdrawing its ambassadors and cutting off economic and military aid, armed forces would be rushed to Venezuela to restore constitutional government.

President Kennedy has definitely decided on that, and has so informed the State and Defense Departments and leaders of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Pres. Romulo Betancourt also has been told of this momentous decision. He is ready to formally request U. S. intervention in the event of the overthrow of his long-embattled regime.

IN PREPARATION for possible recourse to U. S. troops, the administration already has set the wheels in motion to get Senate backing for such explosive action.

For this purpose a bipartisan anti-junta resolution has been sponsored by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), head of the Foreign Relations subcommittee on Latin America, and Sen. Jacob Javits (R-N. Y.). The proposal calls for three measures to counter military coups:

(1) "Denial of diplomatic recognition;" (2) "cancellation of U. S. assistance programs to regimes established by military juntas;" (3) "authorize the president to cooperate with and assist any nation or group of nations in the protection of its territorial integrity and political independence from aggression or subversion by any nation or from any source controlled by international Communism."

THE LAST provision is the most significant and far-reaching. It opens the way for armed intervention by the U. S.

The Crabs Crawl Sidewise And The Cats Climb, Then Freeze

THERE'S A CAT we know named Tiger, in Belvedere, who lived an easy life at the Richard N. Bernstein's eating fish dishes from the Bernstein's Restaurant.

Then one recent day he went out into the world to seek adventure, climbed 53 feet up a eucalyptus limb and sat like a Koala bear, frozen.

Firemen's ladders would reach but 40 feet. Plumber Tom Eubanks couldn't reach Tiger either. The Humane Society said "If the firemen can't, we can't."

THAT NIGHT at 9 a neighbor, whose tree it was, gave permission to cut the limb which started from the trunk 10 feet from the ground. John Moore cut it with his saw. The branch fell.

Ten children leaped into the brush, saying "I've got him!" And Tiger went back to his fish.

The other day we met a man who owns eight cats in Mill Valley.

"I like cats," he said. One, Grover, named after Grover Cleveland, is 17 and is actually a female.

But the special thing about Grover is that, when it is going to rain, barometer-like Grover walks outside and "sniffs up the air."

THE OWNER, who prefers to remain anonymous, also has a three-legged cat, Pierre. It's Pierre's left front leg which is missing.

"A one-armed man from Novato shot him," said the owner, "saying Pierre was eating his chickens . . . Pierre fights, gets around, does everything any other cat does but he can't clean his left eye."

Shoe Master Reginald Brooks and his wife, Ivy celebrated their golden wedding anniversary the other day. The day after Brooks got a letter from the White House; his daughter-in-law, Eileen, picked it up and said "What's this? I don't owe any money at the White House."

"TURNED OUT to be from President Kennedy," said Brooks, "congratulating us. It was lovely, all in gold."

Fall has come to Minnie Iverson who says she is picking "bucketfulls" of dahlias now, giving them to the nuns next door, giving them to children to take to school. Her success she explained is due to a new fertilizer. "It's better than the old."

Frank J. Buscher, Tiburon fire chief, says he's not the youngest Marin fire chief any more. Kentfield has a new chief, Ken Kamp, who is 25, the same age as Buscher when he started. "We'll have to start a young fire chief's association," said Buscher.

ART WEIMAN is angry because someone is stealing his tomatoes from his volunteer tomato plant growing near his gas pumps at the Richfield station at Tamalpais Junction.

In search of truth the other day we went down to Caruso's Bait and Tackle Shop in Marinship and smelled the empty fish pots, listened to the fishermen sitting in the sun telling stories and watched the boats bob. Tony Caruso wasn't there.

Went over to Donlon Arques boat repair place, buried in junk, fragrant with fennel ("old lady's chewing tobacco"), one of those wonderful places which you don't find many of anymore. Arques wasn't there.

WALKED DOWN to the end of the pier and watched a man pound nails into a houseboat while his wife, dressed in black tights, carried paint back and forth on a brush, painting a strip of boat.

Then we went down to the sandspit by the "hole" to see if the crabs still crawled sideways on the green-moss rocks. And there they were.

There, too, were the four pilings which were to be the beginning of a small boat harbor. Work stopped when the city council said "no." On top of one piling sat a white gull, his bill pointed straight at Mount Tamalpais. He looked at us, first out of one eye, then out of the other. Then he flew off toward Tiburon. All these things are important.

You Just Can't Tell Bad Guys From Good Without Program

"Here, boy. Give me a program. By the way, who's playing?"

"In the Southeast Conference we have South Viet Nam vs. the United States, South Viet Nam vs. the Viet Cong, South Viet Nam against the Buddhists and as a special added attraction, Ambassador Lodge against the CIA. Program, program — get your program!"

"We have a special program just for her. She's playing everybody."

"You have a lot of programs there, son."

"Yes sir. You really need a program these days."

"What's the red, white and blue one?"

"That's America vs. France, for the European Cup. Should be a great game. France started with nothing but has now built up a whale of a team. Three years ago France was the underdog, but then she got a new six-foot quarterback and now she's a two point favorite. America has not seemed able to devise any defense against her."

"Why not?"

"They've been so busy working out a defense against Russia they haven't had time to concentrate on the smaller teams."

"What about the Russian-U. S. game?"

"It's been postponed for the moment."

"Why is that?"

"Because of China. Russia is going to play China first. Would you like a Russian program?"

"All right. Gee, you give Russia a nice writeup in this program."

"GOT TO. She took out some wheat advertisements. Any country advertises for wheat in one of our programs can't be all bad."

"Do you have a Cuban program?"

"Nope. We're not allowed to play Cuba. She's not recognized in the Caribbean Conference."

"But she's only 90 miles away."

"Yup — but we have to ignore her. Besides, she has too many Russian ringers on her team. Come on, mister, I have to sell these programs."

"What are those programs in Spanish?"

"THOSE ARE for the South American League; the Dominican Republic, and Honduras. We lost two games to them this month."

"How did that happen?"

"Nobody knows. One day we had the score under control and the next day they threw in a whole new team on us and we got slaughtered.

"Are there any other games I should know about?"

"INDONESIA is playing Malaysia, Africa vs. South Africa, Israel against Jordan, Syria, Egypt and Iraq, South Korea vs. North Korea, and the Congo is playing an intramural game which could have world-wide interest."

"Boy the program business must be good."

"I can't complain. There isn't a person in the world that can tell what's going on without a program. Program, program, buy your programs! All the latest lineups! Can't tell the good guys from the bad guys without a program!"

ARE YOU INSURED AGAINST CAR DEPRECIATION?

How can you protect yourself against depreciation—the largest single expense of car ownership? It's easy. Instead of buying a new 1964 automobile, lease it from Varner-Ward. When you lease the Varner-Ward way, you don't tie-up your capital in a car. So you never need to worry about your investment losing value.

At the same time, you don't have to "gamble" on the used car market. Under our Straight Lease Plan, Varner-Ward takes all the risk of selling your leased car when you are ready to turn it in. If the used car market isn't good, that's our problem—not yours. There's no haggling about trade-in value, no end-of-lease "adjustments." Selling the car is our responsibilty.

Don't let depreciation worries rob you of the pleasure you should get from your new car. Before you buy—or lease—any new car, let us explain all the advantages of leasing the Varner-Ward way.

4 IMPORTANT REASONS WHY YOU ARE DOLLARS AHEAD WHEN YOU LEASE THE VARNER-WARD WAY

- No down payment or deposit
- No worry about depreciation
- No gambling on the used car market
- No resale obligation. However, car is to be returned in reasonably good condition.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFED SHEINWOLD

Safety Play Is Shown In Modern Summary Of Bids

Some years ago the most popular kind of bridge book was a summary of bids and plays that you could keep on the table to refer to as you played.

A modern and complete summary of this kind has just been brought out by Albert H. Morehead, who has been a leading bridge authority since the days of Ely Culbertson. Morehead's Summary shows the correct play of the trump suit in today's hand:

South dealer
Neither side vulnerable

NORTH
♠ 7 2
♡ 10 5 4
◇ K Q J 7
♣ K J 6 2

WEST
♠ K Q J 10 6 4
♡ 9
◇ 8 6 3 2
♣ 7 5

EAST
♠ 9 8 5 3
♡ Q J 7 6
◇ 10 9

SOUTH
♡ A K 8 3 2
◇ A 5 4
♣ A Q 4 3

South	West	North	East
1 ♡	2 ♠	3 ♡	Pass
6 ♡	All Pass

Opening lead — ♠ K

It isn't hard to get to six hearts, but a careless declarer would easily lose the slam.

FIRST TRICK

He would win the first trick with the ace of spades and lead out the ace and king of hearts.

Curtains. East would take two trump tricks, and South would take two aspirins.

It's easy to see the correct play, especially if you have read Morehead's Summary. Take the ace of spades and the ace of hearts to start with. But don't rush ahead when West drops the nine of hearts.

THIRD TRICK

At the third trick, lead a low heart towards dummy's ten. No matter how the hearts break you're sure to lose one trump trick. Lose it this way.

The five missing hearts will break 3-2 in about two cases out of three.

If so, you will lose the second heart trick and capture the last missing trump with the king of hearts at your next opportunity.

LAST TRICK

In this case the hearts break badly. West discards a spade, and you play dummy's 10 to force out the jack.

East returns a spade, and you ruff. Now you lead a low diamond to dummy and return a heart.

East has the Q-7 of hearts, and you play behind him with the K-8.

You can pick up East's trumps by way of a finesse, and then your slam is assured.

Today is Monday, Oct. 21, the 294th day of 1963 with 71 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning star is Jupiter. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1833, Alfred Nobel, the Swedish chemist and engineer, was born. His will provided for the Nobel prizes.

In 1917, soldiers of the First Division of the United States Army were the first Americans to see action on the front lines in World War I.

A thought for the day — British poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge said: "To have lived in vain must be a painful thought to any man, and especially so to him who has made literature his profession."

Castoffs Spark Upset By 49ers

Lamar McHan and Gary Knafelc, two castoffs picked up by the sinking San Francisco 49ers, prove anything can happen in the National Football League as they played big parts in the biggest upset of the year.

For on Sunday, at Kezar Stadium where the 49ers hadn't won since Sept. 30, 1962, they broke a 12-game losing streak to hand the Chicago Bears a 20-14 defeat for their first victory in the league this season before a crowd of 35,837.

McHan started his first game for the 49ers since they claimed him when Baltimore put him on waivers three weeks ago. He went all the way, engineering the first touchdown with a running attack and passing for the second on a seven yard throw to Knafelc who had been released by the Green Bay Packers. Tommy Davis contributed field goals of 25 and 46 yadrs plus two conversions. Jim Vollenweider scored the first TD.

Knafelc started at end in place of injured Monty Stickles and caught four of McHan's passes.

Usually only one game ball is presented, but this time four were handed out, to new Coach Jack Christiansen and his three assistants — Jack Myers, Dick Voris and Bill Johnson.

Christiansen said he figured the players made the awards "because we had the guts to stick with our offense."

And he said this was the same offense that didn't make a first down on the ground just a week ago and only 120 yards net as the 49ers fell at Baltimore 20-3.

"The kids finally got together and decided to play football," said the former Detroit defensive back who took over direction of the 49ers on Sept. 30 when Red Hickey resigned. "That was some of the greatest offensive line play I've ever seen.

"They finally got their timing down and the blocking was working. Those were the same plays we used last week. We're going to use the same offensive against the Rams at Los Angeles next Sunday."

Redwood Clinches Warner Grid Title

With only one more round of action remaining, the Redwood Junior Giants of the Marin Pop Warner Football League have clinched at least a tie for the championship.

The Junior Giants won their fourth straight league contest Saturday night when they bombed the San Rafael Junior Bulldogs 35-0 on the S.R. High School field. In other league action, the San Anselmo Junior Pirates upset the Mill Valley Junior Indians, 12-7, and the Terra Linda Junior Trojans overpowered the Novato Junior Hornets 26-0.

For Redwood, touchdowns were scored by Jim Oates on a 13-yard run in the first quarter and a 44-yard run in the second period, Joe Murphy on a 29-yard romp, and Pete Carroll on a 25-yarder in the second period and 17-yard run in the fourth quarter.

For San Anselmo, Ron Kline scored both touchdowns, the first on a one-yard quarterback sneak and the second from 15 yards out. He set up the first one with a 60-yard run. The lone Mill Valley TD was made by Dave Johnson on a short pass from Don Macklin. The touchdown was set up when a high pass from center for San Anselmo was recovered by M.V. on the Pirates' one-yard line. Larry Borrow scored the extra point.

Terra Linda's touchdowns were scored by John Crawford on a 40-yard pass from Tom Thomas, Keith Sterling on an eight-yard pass from John Doan. Extra points were scored by Sterling and Rod Powell.

2 SAN RAFAEL FOOTBALLERS ARE INJURED

Ken Pharms, junior varsity gridder on the San Rafael High School team, and Paul Weese, a varsity performer for the Bulldogs, both suffered head injuries in Saturday's action against the Tamalpais High School Indians.

Pharms, a son of Sr. M/Sgt. and Mrs. Louis B. Pharms of 10 Andrews Court, Hamilton Air Force Base, was reported to be in "good" condition today at the base hospital where he was treated for possible brain concussion. Pharms, a junior, is a 230-pound tackle.

Weese, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weese of 102 Marina Court Drive, San Rafael, also suffered a possible slight brain concussion. A member of the kickoff team, Weese made the tackles on all three of San Rafael's kickoffs in the varsity game, won by the Bulldogs, 13-7.

70,000 See Dave MacDonald Capture Grand Prix Feature

MONTEREY (UPI)—Dave MacDonald of El Monte, Calif., made it two in a row yesterday by driving his Cooper Cobra to victory in the fourth annual Pacific Grand Prix at the twisting Laguna Seca course.

MacDonald, who captured the Riverside Grand Prix last week, raced his car around the 100-lap, 1.9-mile course yesterday in two hours and nine minutes for an average speed of 83.2 miles per hour. A crowd estimated at 70,000 watched the performance.

The El Monte driver suffered severe blisters on his left hand trying to keep his car from slipping out of third gear during a good part of the race. However, he hit speeds up to 129.4 M. P. H. after taking the lead at the end of the 50th lap and held his advantage the rest of the way.

Former Indianapolis 500 champion A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., driving a Scarab Olds, came in second. Jim Hall of Midland, Tex., at the wheel of a rear-engine Chaparral which he designed and built himself, was third. Dave Ridenour of San Francisco was fourth in his Genie Buick.

Bob Holbert of Warrington, Pa., who shattered the track record last Friday by blazing around the course in 1:11.8, took the lead at the start and held it for 20 laps. He stopped for repairs and world champion Jimmy Clark of Edington-Maine, Scotland, went ahead of the field in his Lotus Climax for 10 more laps.

FORCED OUT

Clark was forced out of the race with oil pressure trouble at the end of the 30th lap, when Holbert again took the lead. But the Pennsylvania driver was forced out by engine trouble on the 50th lap and MacDonald took over.

MacDonald collected $2,000 for the victory, Foyt earned $1,500, Hall got $1,200 and Ridenour took home $1,000.

In the under-two-liter class, Tim Mayer of Surbiton, England, took first place in his Lotus 23B. He was followed by Richie Ginther of Granada Hills, Calif., in a Porsche RS61; and Don Wester of Monterey, also at the wheel of a Porsche RS61.

Pedro Rodriguiz of Mexico City got off to a good start but was forced out in the early rounds with mechanical difficulties. Former world champion Grand Prix champ Graham Hill of London, who was leading the under-two-liter field in the 60th lap, also was forced out.

Jerry Grant of Kent, Washington who had been scheduled to race, suffered back burns when his car caught fire during a practice run yesterday morning. He was reported in "very satisfactory" condition at Monterey Hospital.

Hoogs Wins M.V. Tennis Tourney

Bill Hoogs Jr. defeated Cliff Vickery 6-2, 6-2 yesterday and with the victory won the 11th annual Marin Invitational Tennis Tournament at Mill Valley.

Vickery teamed with Gene Ward to defeat Hoogs and Whitney Reed 6-2, 6-8, 6-4 in the men's doubles. Lynne Abbes won the women's crown over Jean Danigovich, 7-5, 8-6.

WEEKEND FIGHTS

Indian Valley Golf Action Continues

Bob Brossier, defending champion, was among the winners yesterday in the championship flight of the Indian Valley Men's Club Championship tourney.

Results of yesterday's second round:

Championship flight—Bob Brossier d. C. Kerfoot, 19th hole; D. Sparrow d. C. Russell, 1 up; G. Sherba d. B. Dickson, 6 and 5; C. Hicklin d. F. Campagna, 6 and 5.

Chief's flight—P. Nathan d. T. Washington, 6 and 5; Tom Riley d. H. Brossier, by default; N. McDonald d. C. Davis, 7 and 6; B. Cruick d. D. Korn, 19th hole.

Seals Lose To Seattle

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

The Seattle Totems served notice last night that they'll be a threat in the 1963 Western Hockey League race by downing the rugged defending champions from San Francisco, 5-2, for their third straight victory.

The Los Angeles Blades battled into overtime to defeat the Portland Buckaroos, 5-4, in the only other game played.

A crowd of 4,338 turned out at the Seattle arena, where the Totems scattered their scoring pretty much among the team. Goals were scored by Jim Powers, Bob Barlow, Guyle Fielder, Bev Bell and Captain Bill MacFarland.

Columnist Eats Crow On 49ers; But It Tastes Like A Turkey

RANDOL

Like the quiet kid down the street who gets tired of being pushed around by all the bullies in the block, San Francisco's down-trodden 49ers chose the biggest bully of them all and punched him right in the nose. Right out there in front of God and everybody.

Hanging one on the Chicago Bears by a 20 to 14 score will have to go down in the books as the upset of upsets. And I am proud to say I was there to lend my voice to that of the crowd and the supposedly "unemotional" press box that cheered itself hoarse.

If that be eating crow after all the nasty thing I have said about the Niners, make the most of it. It tasted like an early Thanksgiving turkey to me.

No question the Niners got all the breaks. But don't forget that Lady Luck has a way of smiling on those who just won't give up. The 49ers made their breaks by good hard-nosed blocking and tackling and judicious play calling.

SURE, SOMEBODY up there must like them. And so do many thousands of fans anywhere east or west of Chicago. And especially in Green Bay, when the Packers have pulled back into a tie with the Monster of the Midway.

Give full credit to the fans in the stands, too. From the moment the Niners appeared on the field the sometimes fickle supporters were with the coach and the team. Perhaps the first round of applause was for the courage the Niners showed in even making an appearance, but nevertheless it was there.

THE ONLY booing directed at the team during the whole afternoon came with the introduction of big Bob St. Clair. It must be a sad memory for the once-great 49er. At least he was able to rub out part of the sting by recovering a fumble late in the game that maintained ball possession for his team at a critical moment.

Lamar McHan may not be the greatest quarterback in the world, but it would be hard to prove otherwise yesterday. If nothing else, McHan demonstrated that quick, cat-like ball handling is the answer to a big 49er offensive problem. No more will the defense "read the plays" like an open book.

And all credit to new Coach Jack Christiansen, who found a way to give his quarterback real protection for a change. Only once was McHan dragged down by a red-dogging Bear line.

ANOTHER KEY to the win was balance. The offense kept the ball long enough to rest the defense, and for once the stop-'em boys didn't run out of gas in the final quarter.

Team spirit ran high all afternoon, and a startling innovation was the on-the-spot coaching of both offensive and defensive teams while they were on the sidelines. I would guess that the video tape installed this year is beginning to be read during the game instead of after.

Trojans Stop Hornets, Stay In Pennant Race

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Terra Linda High School's Trojan grid team is still in the thick of the Marin Athletic League football race today after scoring a 14-0 upset victory over the Novato High School Hornets last Saturday before about 1,400 fans on the Novato field.

Terra Linda broke the scoring ice in the second quarter with a touchdown and then aded an insurance TD in the final quarter. Both were on one-yard bursts, the first by fullback Steve Frazzini and the second on a quarterback sneak by Bob Taylor.

Fullback Pete Marcovich provided both conversions with a pair of runs through the middle of the Novato line.

Novato which had entered the game as the favorite also started the day as the team with the top offense in the league. But Terra Linda wasn't convinced. The rugged defenders for Terra Linda were ready for the occasion, allowing Novato only 87 yards rushing and 19 yards passing. The total of 106 was well below the Hornets average for the first two games.

2-1 RECORD

The win gave the Trojons a 2-1 record in the MAL and dropped the Hornets down in the standings with a 1-2 mark.

Pete Limm, head coach for the Trojons, had much praise for his team's performance, especially the defensive platoon. It deserved it for it kept Novato on its own side of the field throughout the game.

The Hornets moved the ball past the midfield stripe on only three occasions. The deepest penetration made was to the Terra Linda 40-yard line shortly after the game's opening kickoff.

After making two first downs in the first four plays from scrimmage following the opening kickoff, the Hornets had a first-and-10 on the Terra Linda 40. On the next play, halfback Rick Thomas tried the left guard spot and was hit hard. The ball squirted out of his grasp and a host of blue-shirted Trojons fell on the ball on their own 38-yard line. Although the Hornets weren't too close to scoring a touchdown, they were not going to come any closer to the T.L. goal line.

Terra Linda's first six-pointer came with 7:12 left in the first half. The Trojans took over possession of the ball when Novato's Nick Willard punted on the last play of the first quarter. It was first down for Terra Linda on its own 41-yard line following a 32-yard punt by Willard.

Then the Trojans started hammering at the middle of the Novato line and drove for the touchdown by picking up 59 yards on 10 plays. First downs were picked up by Frazzini, Rick Edwards, Glenn Corona and Tim Garvin as the Trojans moved the ball to the one-yard line for a first and goal. On the first try from the one, Frazzini cracked through right tackle for the tally.

PARETO SHARP

The other Trojan touchdown was set up on a pass interception by Stan Pareto, a fella who was probably the sharpest thorn in the side of the Hornets. A defensive linebacker, Pareto was repeatedly in on key tackles.

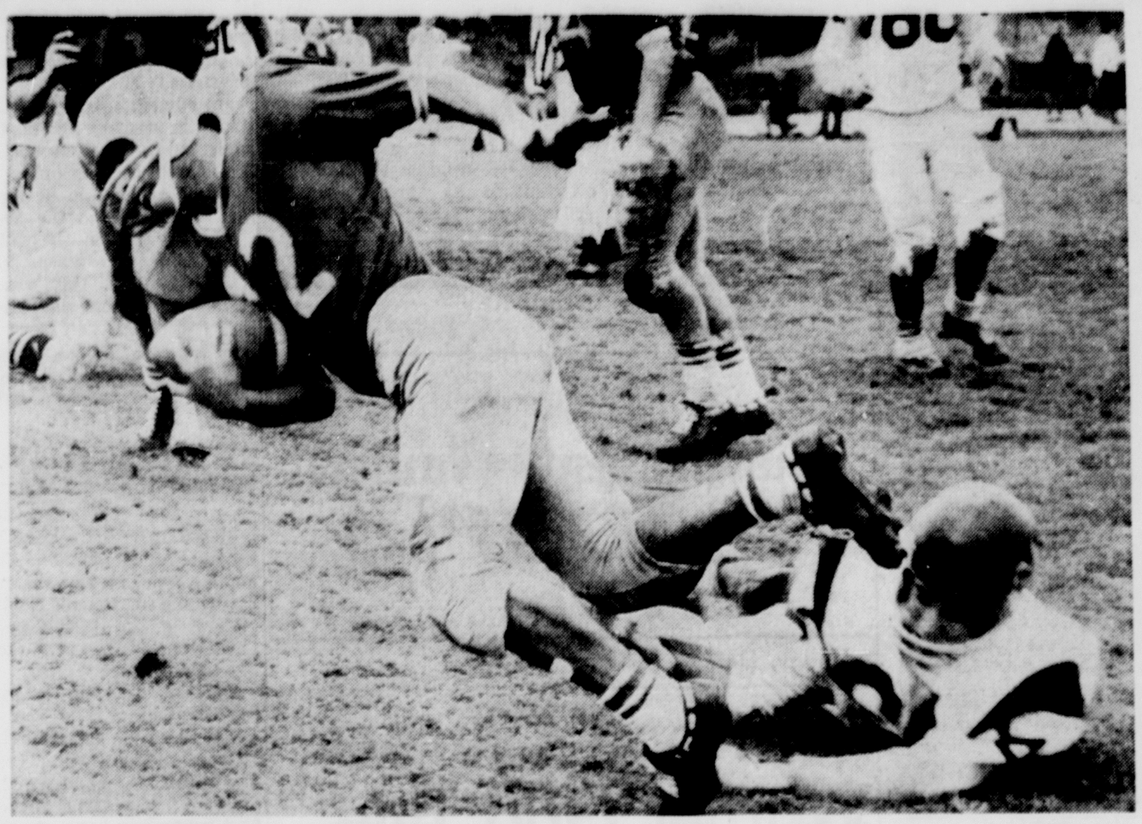

After intercepting the pass, Pareto ran it back to the Novato 37. A 17-yard pass from Taylor to Edwards and four gains on the ground again pnt Terra Linda on the one-yard line. Taylor called his own number and crashed over for the score. With only 1:52 remaining on the scoreboard, the touchdown virtually put the last nail in the Hornet coffin.

It was especially a rough day for Novato quarterback Roy Otis. He completed only 4 of 18 pass attempts and had 4 of his aerials intercepted. John Forry plucked off one in the first quarter and another in the fourth quarter and Dave Dohn intercepted one in the final period.

Offensively thumping the Hornets in the statistice department, Terra Linda rushed for 156 yards and passed for another 73 yards for a total of 299 to only 106 for Novato.

Edwards was the top ground-gainer for Terra Linda as he picked up 44 yards in 9 carries. Taylor connected on 7 of 14 pass attemptes for an even .500 mark and 73 yards.

Thomas was the leading rusher for Novato with 54 yards in 14 carries.

Win Baseballers Golf

PALM DESERT (AP)—Los Angeles Angels outfielder Albie Pearson failed to hang onto his Baseball-Celebrity Golf Tournament crown as Cincinnati catcher Jim Campbell won by four strokes.

Last year Pearson beat Campbell by two strokes after being tied as the final round opened. Campbell shot a one-under par 71 this year.

Drake Blanks Marin, 13-0

By MAURICE WEINGER

Generating just enough offense in the second half, Drake High School remained undefeated by blanking Marin Catholic, 13-0, last Saturday at Kentfield.

It was the Pirates' sixth straight win of the season and the third consecutive in the Marin Athletic League, but the outcome was in serious doubt until late in the last quarter when Drake finally opened the airlanes with the second score of the game.

Martin Catholic played a tremendous game, and at the half had held the Pirates to a fantastic net yard gain of zero on the ground, and three yards through the air. The Wildcats, using a tight five man line consisting of Mike Solomon, Bill McClelland, Ed Lencioni, Pete Donaldson and Bud Almada, completely outblocked and outtackled the high-scoring Pirate eleven during the first two quarters.

FIRST SCORE

What ever was said by Pirate coach Bob Franceschini during the halftime intermission must have been greatly received, for the Pirates opened the third quarter by taking the kickoff and traveling 53 yards on 15 plays for the first score.

Offensive star during the drive was halfback Terry Tadlock. The 5-7 runner was playing in place of rushing star Dean Lazzarini, who was resting a hip pointer suffered in last week's Redwood game. Without the speedy Lazzarini, who can cut the corners on end runs with ease, Drake relied on the off tackle plays with Tadlock doing most of the work.

From Drake's 47, Tadlock opened the third quarter with seven and Tony Rivera added another six and a first down on the Wildcat 40-yard line. The same pair again alternated ball carries for the next four plays bringing the ball down to the 24 where Mike Kemp fooled the Wildcat defense with a rollout for 10 yards around right and and the Pirates had achieved its third first down of the drive on the 12-yard line.

ROUGH DEFENSE

Kemp brought the ball down to the three on a nine yard quarterback sneak and Tadlock added another yard in the middle for another first down. It took all four plays from the two to get the score as Marin Catholic stopped the first three drives down the middle, but couldn't stop Kemp, who raced wide around right end for the score. Mike Crabtree added the seventh point on a pass from Kemp.

Again it was Tadlock who sparked the second scoring rally for the Pirates. Getting off the longest run of the game, a 14-yarder that Tadlock accomplished by stiff arming three defenders out of the way, the Pirates moved to midfield. Rivera banged for five and Tadlock again bulled for eight to the 37. A three yard gain by Rivera and a keeper by reserve quarterback Alan Simontacchi moved the ball to the 30, but an offside penalty lost five.

Simontacchi then faked a pitchout towards his left while Rivera raced down the right side of the field. The junior thrower sent the ball to Rivera who caught it on the 10 and was forced out of bounds on the one.

On the first down play, Simontacchi leaped over for the clincher and the win.

The Wildcats' offense was plotted with the ground gain going inside the Drake defensive tackles. Three runners, Rick Bacich, Lu Ercolini and Rod Ponath, did their job to perfection as they pushed for short gains throughout the game, especially during the first two quarters.

Marin almost scored during the last seconds of the second quarter but its drive from the 43-yard line ended on the 15 where a field goal try by Bacich fell a little short.

Drake also won its preliminary games: the freshmen defeated Terra Linda, 25-7 and the JVs shut out Marin Catholic, 20-0.

BULLDOGS RALLY TO DEFEAT TAM

By JIM GILMARTIN

San Rafael's Bulldogs intercepted four passes and converted two of them into touchdowns Saturday to turn back the Tamalpais Indians 13-7 at Kentfield.

Faced with a 6-7 deficit at halftime — after Tam scored its first touchdown of the season in the second period—Coach Bob Muster's Bulldogs pushed across the winning TD in the third stanza and then thwarted a Tam threat in the final minute of play to score their second Marin Athletic League victory without a loss and stay one-half game behind Drake (3-0) in the title race. Tam receipted for its sixth consecutive loss dating back to the final game of 1962.

A crowd of only about 1,000 —smallest Tam-San Rafael attendance in memory—sat under grey skies and watched the Bulldogs avert an upset with a beautifully executed scoring series in the third period after Jim Schmidt intercepted a Tam pass and returned it to the Indian 40.

In two of the next five plays quarterback Wade Roberts pitched out to halfback Tim Harr on right end runs that netted seven yards each time. Gains by Roberts of eight and four yards and by John O'Donnell of two yards moved it to the Tam 12.

SCORING PASS

Then Roberts suckered the Tam defense on another pitchout to Harr on an apparent right end sweep, but the halfback dropped back and threw a pass to John Patrick all alone in the end zone for the go-ahead and winning tally. Schmidt ran over the 13th point on a fake place kick.

Tam made a determined comeback in the final minutes after taking a punt on the Indian 38. Three plays netted only two yards, so the Indians went into punt formation, but fooled San Rafael as "punter" Robin Prosch passed a strike to end Cedric Collett who was dragged down from behind by Schmidt and Dave Cooley on

REFRESHMENT FOR THE WINNER

Coast College Grid Highlights

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Get that quarterback!

They're dominating the West Coast football scene today and it will be a battle to pick out the best in the Pacific when the season ends.

How about Southern California's Pete Beathard who came into his own last Saturday and led the Trojans to a 32-3 upset of fourth ranked Ohio State?

Or California's Craig Morton, whose five touchdown passes set a school mark and led the Bears to a 34-13 blitzing of San Jose State?

Then there's Gordon Queen, Terry Baker's successor at Oregon State, who found the key after some groping and threw three TD's in the Beaver's 30-6 rout of Washington State.

Quarterback Bill Douglas connected on two touchdown passes to get Washington past hard luck Stanford, 19-11, in the fourth straight loss for the Indians who are dying because their top signal caller is out for the year. And Bob Berry, Oregon's sharp quarterback, gained 190 yards passing as he directed the Ducks to a 28-12 win over Arizona.

It will be Beathard versus Morton next Saturday when Southern Cal comes to Berkeley to open defense of its Big Six title at California.

In other games, Notre Dame's Irish—who have uncovered a hot quarterback of their own in Frank Budha—will be at Stanford favored to hand the Indians their fifth straight loss. The rest of the slate features Illinois at UCLA Friday, Washington at Oregon, Washington State at Army, Oregon State at Syracuse, San Jose State at Idaho and the University of the Pacific at Utah State.

Saturday's highlights:

Dick Van Raaphorst's 44 yard field goal gave Ohio State a brief lead over Southern California. Then Beathard got his team on the beam and Willie Brown's 49-yard touchdown run put USC ahead for keeps. Beathard also scored a TD from the one and passed 33 yards to John Thomas for another. Southern Cal picked up 18 first downs to the Buckeyes' three.

California's Morton connected on a 67-yard bomb to old playmate Jack Schraub in the second period to crack a 7-7 tie and start Cal toward its win over San Jose State. Morton also hit on two 49 yard scoring passes and one each from the 18 and nine yard stripes.

Queen, getting some needed pass protection, hit Vern Burke with two scoring tosses and threw another to Danny Espalin as Oregon State overwhelmed Washington State, 30-6.

Douglas and end Jake Kupp of Washington twice hooked up for scoring passes within five plays as the Huskies downed Stanford, 19-11. The Indians scored with three minutes to play but the touchdown was killed when they were penalized 15 yards for interference on the pass.

While Oregon's Bob Berry was helping to subdue Arizona in a partly-marred contest, Notre Dame's Budka wrecked UCLA, 27-12. He passed twice for touchdowns, scored a third and a Fighting Irishman named Charlie O'Hara went 54 yards for another score after UCLA had cut Notre Dame's lead to 14-6.

Idaho belted UOP, 64-6, to beat the de-clawed Tigers for the first time in the eight games they have played.

Daniels Great As Raiders Roll Over N.Y. Jets, 49-26

He led the league in rushing after two games which the surprising Raders won. Then a leg injury put him out and Oakland lost four straight.

He returned to action yesterday before 15,557 fans at Frank Youell Field and rushed for 200 yards as the Raiders shelled the New York Jets 49-26. That was the same club that beat Oakland 10-7 while Daniels was out.

With Clem, the offense clicked to the tune of 523 yards, including 300 through the air. The hard running Daniels, from Prairie View A & M in Texas, accounted for all but 23 of Oakland's rushing yards.

With the outburst, the Raiders went from last to second in the American Football League's Western Division with a record now at 3-4. They meet the leader, San Diego (5-1) at San Diego on Sunday and Daniels is healthy.

The Raiders led 35-13 at halftime after a three-touchdown outburst in the first quarter.

That included a 93-yard pass play from Tom Flores to Dobie Craig. Flores was knocked out in the first play of the second quarter but Cotton Davidson took over to throw two touchdown passes before halftime.

Daniels rushing output didn't include 66-yards gained on a second quarter scoring pass from Davidson but it did count a 74-yard run for the final Oakland touchdown.

Clem's running mate, fullback Alan Miller also scored twice, first on a three-yard smash and again on an eight-yard pass from Davidson.

Olson 10-7 Choice Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Bobo Olson, one eye cocked on Willie Pastrano's world light-heavyweight boxing crown, returns to the city of some of his biggest triumphs for a 10-rounder tonight against Jose Menno of Argentina at Kezar Pavilion.

Olson is 35 now and it has been eight years since he wore the middleweight championship. But he claims he feels better than in a long time and wants a fight with Pastrano if he can get past Menno. Olson is a 10-7 favorite.

Olson has fought in San Francisco 18 times and lost only once — to Sugar Ray Robinson for the middleweight title in 1952. After Olson gained the crown from Randy Turpin, he defended successfully in San Francisco against Rocky Castellani and Pierre Langlois.

The bout will be the 100th of Bobo's career and he will be aiming for victory No. 86. Menno was unbeaten in 1962, but has lost two narrow decisions to Wayne Thornton of Fresno this year.

Thornton, in turn, is 1-1-1 in recent outings with Pastrano so Olson figures an impressive victory over Menno should be worth a shot at Pastrano, even if it's a non-title affair.

Olson figures that Pastrano won't give Harold Johnson a return bout and he said Willie "would be crazy" to defend in the home town of several possible foreign challengers.

Menno doesn't have an impressive knockout record, but he's a wade-in fighter. He will be meeting an opponent with 40 knockouts on his record.

First preliminary tonight starts at 8:30 and the main event at approximately 10.

San Rafael Defeats Tam

FOURTH INTERCEPTION

It was San Rafael's fourth interception of the game. The first came in the opening period when Cooley snagged a Prosch pass on the Indian 33 and raced it back to a touchdown and a 6-0 San Rafael lead.

Tam's lone score of the game also was set up by an interception on the Bulldog 32. An 18-yard Prosch to Ted Corrillo pass moved it to the 14; Ellis Williams ripped off eight yards around end; Prosch picked up three and a first down; Williams was thrown for a five-yard loss; Prosch gained five back to the three and then Prosch sneaked over for the TD, after which he also ran over the extra point for a 7-6 lead.

Thus, after 17 quarters, 9 minutes and 40 seconds of play in 1963, Tam scored its first points.

But, they were too little and too late.

Balanced Attack, Wilt's Passing, Win For Warriors

CINCINNATI (AP) — Balanced scoring and Wilt Chamberlain's new role os a passer featured the first, winning game of the National Basketball Assn. season for the San Francisco Warriors.

The team held on Saturday night for a 103-102 squeaker over the new Baltimore Bullets, putting the Warriors atop the Western Division of the league with a 1-0 mark. They take on the Cincinnati Royals tomorrow night.

Nicklaus Rally Wins Sahara Golf Tourney

LAS VEGAS (AP)—Jack Nicklous, having grabbed most of the golfing silver in the silver state of Nevada, headed for Paris today and something less tanigible—prestige.

This remarkable young man, only 23, the Master's and PGA and former National Open champion, will team with Arnold Palmer to represent the United States in the Canada Cup matches.

Admittedly, any francs he wins in France will not disturb Nicklaus' income tax status much in this country.

Nicklaus won the $70,000 Sahara Invitational Tournament yesterday with a come-from-behind 69 for a 72-hole score of 276. He did it with his second big rally in four days.

Nicklaus trailed the 26-year-old Californian by two strokes going into the final nine holes.

Then Nicklaus poured it on, and Gieberger had to settle for a tie with Gay Brewer, each with a 70 for 277.

Nicklaus collected $13,000, the same sum he earned in winning the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions last spring. He also won a $4,000 automobile.

It boosted his official PGA earnings for the year to $98,990.

It seems to me . . .

by Lou Concilio

Self Portrait Of A Madcap

I think I've written enough of these columns by now that my readers deserve a logical explanation of the basic reasons for the effort. It is, you know, an effort. I've stared many a blank half hour at the knobs of my stereo in vain hope it would belch forth the proper sequence of words to fill this space. I got no words there. Just bugged with rhythm. Eventually, thankfully, the words come, almost too quickly, and overwhelm me right to the punch last paragraph, and the entire process begins again.

I have no giant scissors to snip out little gems from a deluge of mail—to measure and piece together until the allotted space is nicely filled. The metropolitan papers are well represented by this torpid brand of "reporters." At the other extreme, I cannot afford the luxury of espousing causes which might be considered controversial, although I envy at times this weapon of the pen used so indiscriminately by other columnists.

Actually, I must remind myself I am neither of these types of columnist—if indeed, a columnist of any type. I have no one writing to me, eager to have their secrets or witticisms printed. I have no one praising me or condemning me for taking a particular stand on a currently burning issue. And this is as it should be.

There is really no mystery about these offerings of mine. They are intended to interest, hopefully, and amuse, thankfully. And, somewhere in this process they are intended to establish an identity with my original and basic occupation—managing Ames Ford Sales in such a manner as to produce reasonable profits, while, at the same time, preserving its reputation in the community.

They are admittedly commercials, in a carefully disguised subliminal form. And, like all commercials, they must justify the effort and expense involved to continue. The fact that writing gives me personal gratification and a sense of fulfillment second only to the attainment of forecasted goals for Ames Ford does not justify the unrestricted indulgence of a boss and patron like Doug Cowan.

Doug has provided me with the opportunity and has given me the latitude to attain a level of personal success which only a few years ago would have seemed entirely visionary. I have tried earnestly to return his faith and confidence with continuous effort to produce the only purpose of the association — results. The results at Ames Ford speak loudly for themselves. We have become a successful and respected dealership, so unique in many respects as to be sought out by the Company on numerous occasions to tell our story to the other 6,000-odd Ford dealers nationwide.

I'm happy and properly grateful. But, I wish once in a while someone would come in and say they came in to buy their Ford from Ames because they liked what they read in one of my columns. I do like to write them, you know.

MODERN MARKET

Teen-Age Jeans Bulge With Dollars

By JACK LEFLER

Teen-agers have billions of dollars to spend.

The market they make up is a phenomenon of modern merchandising.

Merchants who were in the habit of lumping youngsters' spending with that of the family are going all out to cater to their widely diversified needs and desires.

They realize now that the teen-age market is independent and expanding rapidly.

It is estimated that there are 11,065,000 teen-age girls in the United States and that there will be 13,116,000 by 1970.

They have 6.3 billion dollars a year of their own to spend.

There are more than nine million boys 14 to 17 years old-"teen-men," the storekeepers like to call them.

The increase in the U.S. population between 1960 and 1970 is estimated at between 12 and 22 per cent. But the number of youngsters in the free-spending 15-to-19-year-old segment will spurt more than 40 per cent.

"Until after World War II business had never shown much interest in the young woman under 20 — in fact no one did except teen-age boys," says Enid A. Haupt, editor of Seventeen magazine, a publication for girls.

"In just this short span of time teens have catapulted into the economic limelight, their pockets bulging with dollars to spend, their spirits filled with the desire for new things, new experiences, new loyalties.

"They have become a separate and distinct group in our society—they're the new frontier of the economy—they're the unexpected bonanza for industry."

The boys represent an even bigger market than girls as far as their own money is concerned. That's because many pad out their allowances from the family with jobs after school and on weekends.

The teen-age market is wide open to the alert advertiser, says Eugene Gilbert, president of Eugene Gilbert Co., research and survey organization.

"Teen-agers are a follow-the-leader group," he adds. "They are more susceptible to advertising than any other age group."

Three thousand years ago in Egypt, children were taught to read and write at age 4. School teachers corrected their pupils' papyrus worksheets with red ink.

U.N. DAY—Dr. Charles E. Larsen, associate professor of history and government at Mills College, will speak at a United Nations Day luncheon sponsored by the Leagues of Women Voters of southern and central Marin, the Young Woman's Christian Assn., Zonta of Marin and the Marin Branch of the American Assn. of University Women Thursday at noon at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, 507 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael.

Brown Defends Bill Increasing Gas Tax

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Gov. Edmund G. Brown defended his signature on a bill increasing the gasoline tax today as an expression of faith in home rule.

The bill raising the tax from six to seven cents-per-gallon was approved by the 1963 legislature and signed by Brown despite the governor's campaign of "no new taxes."

Brown told delegates to an annual conference of the League of California Cities that "some people were unkind enough to suggest that the governor had kept his promise of 'no new taxes' by authorizing more of the old ones."

"But," his prepared text continued, "I can say to you that the merits of this action were so great for local government that there just was no other choice."

Brown said the increase will net cities an additional 53 million dollars, during the first year.

"That, my friends, is how we express our faith in home rule in California—not in lip service, but in cash on the line," he said.

Brown's speech stressed the importance of action at the local level, and the relationship of local governments to regional, state and federal authorities.

Accident Victim's Condition Poor

Six-year-old Michael Kiley, whose mother was killed in a headon auto collision Oct. 13 near Fairfield, remained in poor condition today in Marin General Hospital.

The boy suffered head injuries in the accident which claimed five lives. His sister, Sharon Kiley, 8, was sent home to St. Helena from the hospital Saturday after treatment for a broken right arm and cuts. Their grandmother, Mrs. Jewel Marie Stutchman, 48, also of St. Helena, was still in critical condition today in Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital.

Prison Escaper Jury Trial To Start Tomorrow

Jury trials are scheduled to start tomorrow in Marin County Superior Court for James Monroe Woosley, a San Quentin Prison life-termer charged with escape, and John B. Castillo, Oakland businessman accused of raping a 50-year-old woman.

Woosley, 28, a kidnaper and robber from Sacramento, was captured early July 2 with the 15-year-old son of a prison employee at Ignacio after a chase in which a stolen car was wrecked and a stolen truck abandoned.

The two were found lying in high grass near a road opposite Raphael Village. Woosley was discovered when San Quentin guard J. H. Geurts stepped on the convict's back in the dark.

Oxygen Purchase On Board's Agenda

An operations committee recommendation on purchase of oxygen and medical gas for Marin General Hospital will be discussed by the Marin District Hospital board at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the hospital lounge.

A chess set exhibited in East Germany in 1960 portrayed the king as a worker reading an economic plan and the queen as a woman scientist. Pawns carry hammers or sickles.

Class Sizes On Ross Agenda

The Ross School District board will receive a recommendation from the Citizens School Planning Committee on desired class sizes at a meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at Ross School.

The board also will work on preparing its statement of opposition to the proposed unification of the Tamalpais Union High School District, which would include Ross Grammar School.

1.3 Miles to Town From Racquet Club Estates

Sun Valley Grammar School . . . just 2 short blocks away . . . a United Market is at the foot of the hill on the Miracle Mile . . . San Rafael public library, less than a mile away.

Maybe this is an odd "pitch" to sell a house, but convenience must be present as well as excellence of design and materials, spectacular view and good financing.

We have 'em all.

Only 3 homes left . . . of this group in a "super desirable" Racquet Club location. It's a crest, overlooking the swim and tennis club below just a short block away. Native trees enhance the view of Mt. Tam to the west, or eastward across San Rafael to distant Mt. Diablo.

NEW, NEW SERIES OF HOMES ARE NOW GOING INTO CONSTRUCTION . . . AT THE $30,000 PRICE LEVEL. ASK OUR SALESMAN TO SHOW YOU THE PLANS.

BOLINAS AVENUE

MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until 1:30 p.m., Oct. 22, 1963, for:

Installation of 60 inch-reinforced concrete pipe together with headwalls, rock rip-rap protection, and miscellaneous work involved in construction of improvements, complete in place on Bolinas Avenue, 300 feet south of Creek Road, City of Fairfax.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, P. O. Box 4186, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specification or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Treasurer, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) percent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's check or a bidder's bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 1:30 P.M. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub totals and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for this purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Why Some Children Are Prone To Everything—Cigarettes To Soap

VAN DELLEN

Toddlers are prone to put everything in their mouth as part of their exploratory activities. They eat dirt, bugs, starch, cigarettes, soap, newspapers, fluff from blankets, and fur off the cat. This type of perverted appetite is called pica and it usually disappears after the third year of life.

Now and then the craving continues and there are theories galore as to the cause. Many of these children remain healthy unless they consume flakes of paint and develop lead poisoning. Others are malnourished and sickly but the craving for starch or clay does not mean that the body lacks the minerals found in these substances. A colleague of mine was a great believer in the theory of mineral deficiencies until he was consulted by the parents of a boy who loved to eat cigarette butts and another who ate newspapers. I asked him if these children lacked nicotine or printer's ink.

SOME AUTHORITIES have traced these unusual tendencies to unmet emotional needs. The habit persists because parents do not pay attention to the child and allow him to put harmful objects into the mouth. The mother may be a gadabout, spending so little time at home that the child finds solace and gratification in eating nonedible items.

Other studies have suggested that various forms of addiction among adults are sometimes a carry-over from pica in childhood. One represents a craving early in life and addiction occurs when the dynamic characteristics of the craving are continued.

PICA OCCURS also in adults. Pregnant women in some areas often eat clay and cornstarch. In some instances, poor diet is responsible; clay supplies the missing iron and calcium whereas cornstarch contributes calories.

But most authorities believe that these strange habits of pregnant women stem from a cultural pattern typical fo certain communities. Mothers who come from localities where clay or starch eating is the thing to do will follow suit when pregnant. The children of these women may also indulge and pica was especially prevalent among children in the region of the District of Columbia whose mothers came from communities where starch eating was common.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

ITCH FOR WINE

REPLY

FEWER CALORIES

V. W. writes: Can you lose weight by drinking coffee with saccharin?

REPLY

WET BRAIN

REPLY

I am not familiar with the term but assume it refers to cerebral congestion or one of the neurologic disorders associated with steady drinking.

Mill Valley Firemen's Ball Slated Nov. 2

Final preparations are being made for the 68th annual Mill Valley Volunteer Firemen's ball to be held at 9 p.m. Nov. 2 at the Outdoor Art Club.

Dick Hart and his band will play. Funds raised will be placed in the volunteers sick and welfare fund. Tickets, according to dance chairman Roy Bernard, have been sent to all Mill Valley residents. They may be purchased on the dance night or at any time from the fire department.

Hayden To Autograph

Sausalito actor-author Sterling Hayden will meet the public on the sailing ship Balcutha at San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf from 4 to 6 p.m. tomorrow. He will autograph his autobiography, "Wanderer."

Man Is Injured In Waldo Crash

A San Francisco man was treated for chest and back injuries yesterday at Marin General Hospital after his car jumped the divider strip on Highway 101 on the Waldo Grade and was hit by another car.

Pieto Mazzaferri, 69, was southbound on the highway, just north of Rodeo Avenue, when he stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake pedal and lost control of his car, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Mazzaferri's car was hit by a car being driven north by Rosemary Rita Pollastoini, 38, of San Francisco. Her car in turn was hit by a car being driven by Edwin Augustus Miller, 64, of 35 Leafwood Circle, San Rafael.

'Red-Hot' Meeting Set For Planners

A "red-hot" meeting appears to be in store Monday when the Marin County Planning Commissions opens its regular session at 9 a.m. on the third floor of the Marin County Civic Center.

First item on the agenda is the question of whether "illuminated red" should be reinstated in the county's sign ordinance. The present ordinance says no sign may be illuminated by red or similar colors because these tend to conflict with emergency signals such as stop lights and police lights. A group of businessmen are asking that illuminated red signs be permitted for business establishments.

Conservation groups want the pier and bulkhead lines established right away so Richardson Bay may be preserved as it is. Property owners, on the other hand, contend that fixed pier and bulkhead lines would kill development on the Richardson Bay tidelands.

Other items on the planning commission agenda for Monday include:

1. A proposal to establish a new zone for controlling trailer parks and other mobile homes.

2. Rezoning the Los Ranchitos area north of San Rafael for residential with minimum lot size of one acre. Present zoning is limited to agricultural.

3. Request of D. M. Christensen Construction Co to put in apartments in Marinwood. The area is bounded by Miller Creek, Las Gallinas Avenue, Miller Creek Road and the commercial center.

4. Tentative map of Del Mesa Heights, requested by August and Lillian Hanken and James and Billie Ruth Wilson. The property is about eight acres on Laurel Avenue between Ross and Kentfield.

5. Standard Oil Co application for a service station on the south side of Bel Marin Keys Boulevard, opposite Montego Key.

6. Application for 81 apartment units in Loma Verde on Alamedo Del Prado at its intersection with Highway 101.

VFW Buys Building In Novato

The building at 844 Sweetzer Avenue, Novato, has been purchased by the Donald V. Westlund Post 7816, Veterans of Foreign Wars, for a veterans hall, it was announced today by Louis Cavallero, post commander.

Price of the building was not disclosed. Cavallero said the post paid cash for it.

"We have saved money for 10 years for the building," he said.

The post will move into its new home in about two months, or as soon as the building can be remodeled, according to Cavallero. Plans call for installing a kitchen and setting aside office space in the front of the building to be rented out. There is off-street parking for 40 cars, he said.

Richardson Bay Students Elect Officers

Valena Randolph, daughter of Mrs. Alma Randolph, 311 Drake Avenue, Marin City, was elected president of the Richardson Bay School student body in elections yesterday.

Other officers elected for the school year were Peter Laufer, Sausalito, vice president; Jennifer Jones, Marin City, secretary; Shelly Kennet, Sausalito, historian; Ernest Clark, Marin City, treasurer, and John Thibadeaux, Marin City, parliamentarian.

All of the students elected are to participate in a Parent-Teacher Assn. program at 8 p.m., Nov. 6, at which they will be asked to explain the functions of their offices.

Funds For School

The Sausalito School District will receive $1,291 in state funds as its final appropriation for fiscal 1962-63 from the state department of education for education of physically and mentally handicapped children.

Woman Sues For Damage To Skin

Miriam E. Gowan doesn't find the Lovable Brassiere Co. very lovable. She's suing it for $15,000.

Mrs. Gowan, of 75 Gustafson Court, Novato, claims the brassiere she bought contained materials which caused a severe case of dermatitis on her chest, back, arms and legs. Also named in the suit is the Mode O'Day Corp.

The suit was filed yesterday in Marin County Superior Court, transferred from San Francisco. The undergarment was purchased Sept. 9, 1962, at a Mode O'Day shop in Novato, according to her attorney, Gene Rosenberg.

Mrs. Gowan said there were implied and stated warranties that the garment was in a safe and salable condition.

No Objections Filed For PG&E Line Plan

There were no objections filed, on navigational grounds, against Pacific Gas and Electric Co.'s proposed transmission line across Novato Creek and Petaluma River, the Army Corps of Engineers reported yesterday.

Deadline for objections to the Novato Creek crossing was Thursday, and for objections to the Petaluma River crossing yesterday.

PG&E is seeking permits to cross each body of water with 220,000 volt lines running from its Ignacio substation into a Sonoma County terminus, about 15 miles northeast of Vallejo.

At Novato Creek the wires would be strung from steel towers about 120 feet high and would provide a 35-foot clearance over the creek, crossing it near Highway 37, southeast of Novato.

Servicemen Yule Gift Deadlines

The United States Post Office Department has set Nov. 1 to 20 as the period for sending Christmas packages to servicemen overseas by ordinary mail.

The airmail period will be from Dec. 1 to 10.

San Rafael Postmaster Warren H. Williams said gifts should be packed in boxes of wood, metal, solid fiberboard or strong, double-faced corrugated fiberboard.

The address should be legible and complete, he said. And it is a good idea as an extra precaution to include a slip with the address inside the parcel.

Variance For High Fence Is Granted

Following a site inspection by the Corte Madera Board of Adjustments the board Wednesday night voted 3-0 granting Mr. and Mrs. Bonne B. Berends a variance for a southeast sideyard fence at 122 Crescent Road seven to eight feet high, one to two feet higher than specified by the zoning ordinance.

On Sept. 18 two neighbors objected. This week there was an objection also from Carl J. Kalb of Larkspur, owner of a nearby house at 124 Crescent Road which had a patio and fence that blocked Ridgeway Path until 25 residents protested to the town council.

Driver Fined, Jailed

David Carol Lindt, 52, of San Francisco, was fined $276 and sentenced to five days in the Marin County Jail yesterday for driving while intoxicated. Lindt pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court before Judge Joseph G. Wilson, and admitted a prior conviction. He was arrested June 29 by the California Highway Patrol on Highway 101 at Entrada Road, Ignacio.

Cossack Chorus, Dancers Slated

The Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers of Prague, Czechoslovakia, will perform at Novato High School gymnasium Nov. 9 under auspices of the Novato Community Ambassadors.

Proceeds from the concert will go toward student exchange program: the American Field Service program and the Experiment in International Living program.

Known as the Platoff Cossacks, the group consists of 25 men under direction of Nicholas Kostrukoff. In the past 22 years it has presented 7,500 concerts in 65 countries.

Reed District Figure Is Lower

School finances are difficult to understand and difficult to interpret, as the current debate over next Tuesday's tax election in the Reed Union School District emphasizes.

Trapped in the maize of statistics, the Independent-Journal misinterpreted a statement by Berton C. Jacobson at Tuesday's meeting of the Reed district Parent-Teacher club. Questioned as to how much school tax money could be realized by the district from the apartments now under construction, Jacobson predicted $30,000, not $120,000 as reported in Wednesday's Independent-Journal. The latter figure would be the total tax.

NATIONAL NEWSPAPERBOY DAY★SAT. OCT. 19

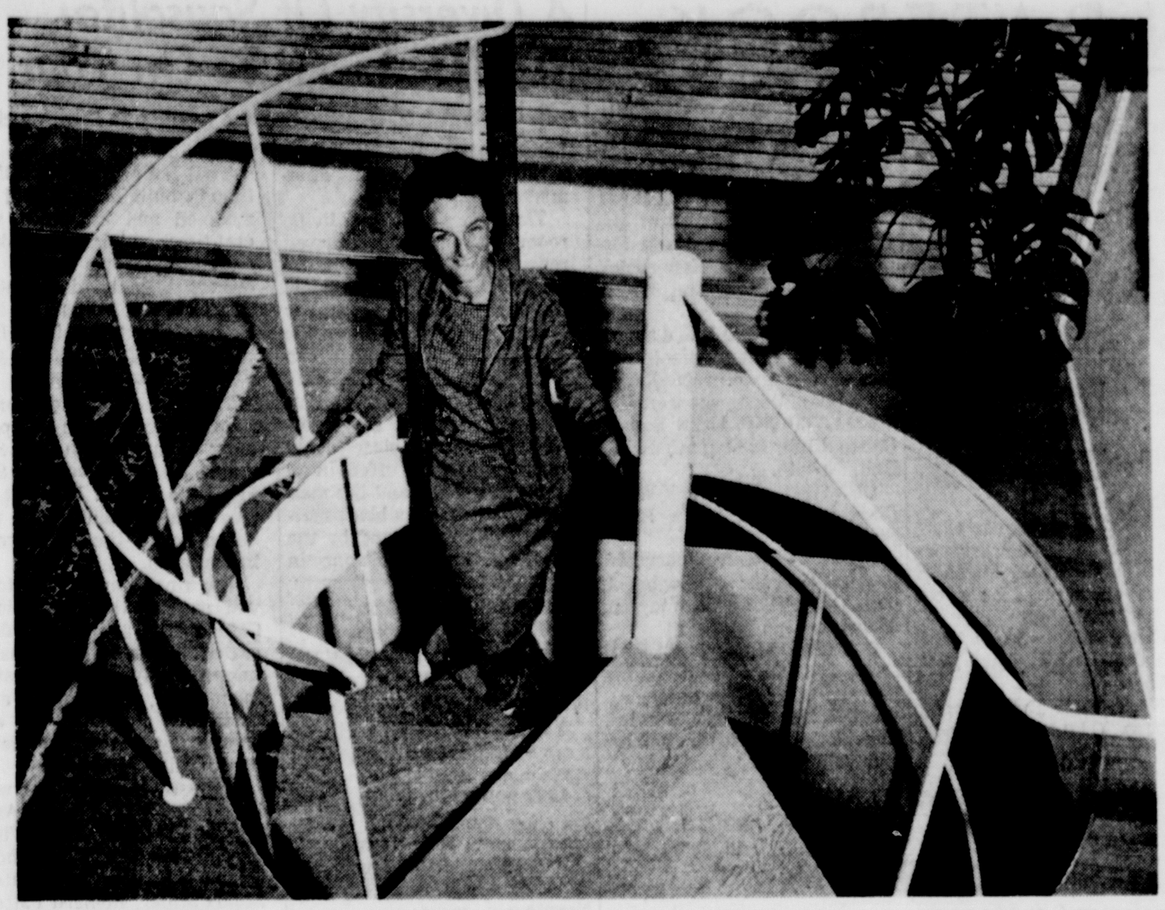

"IT'S ALL ABOUT US, DAVE . . . AND THE 673 OTHER I-J FELLAS"

It's a familiar sight in Marin County . . . our "afternoon army" of 675 boys getting ready to deliver the I-J. Getting ready for the future, too. Doing a job, becoming self-reliant. Learning courtesy and punctuality. Bringing you day by day, the most vital commodity made in America—the news as reported by a free press.

It's hard to define this kind of education. It's more than a job. It's a lesson in personal enterprise, in service, in thrift—and it lasts a lifetime.

A "well done" to our boys and yours by the Independent-Journal • Serving all of Marin County

THIS HANDSOME circular staircase provides a dramatic entry to the new house designed for himself by architect Theodore T. Boutmy, A.I.A. It will be included in the Oct. 30 house tour sponsored by the Sausalito Nursery School. The large central living room has a unique curved redwood ceiling and a steel fireplace. The kitchen can at will become part of the room or be made to disappear. On the staircase is Mrs. Knud Wibroe, who will be one of the hostesses on the tour.

ONE OF THE two oldest houses in Sausalito is that of Col. and Mrs. Brookner Brady which is known to many as "Tyrrel cottage" and was built in 1870 as a carriage house. Looking from its second story windows are Mrs. Manuel F. Allende, left, and Mrs. Charles Ashley, who will be tour hostesses.

Six Sausalito Homes On Tour

The Sausalito Nursery School's annual champagne house tour is slated for Oct. 30, from 12:30 to 4 p.m., when six dwellings of considerable diversity will be open to the public.

Starting at the Cote d'Azur at 100 South St., where cars may be parked on the lower level, a shuttle service will provide transportation to all the houses.

ON VIEW WILL be a Pacific floating home, moored at the Trident on Bridgeway; the home of Col. and Mrs. Brookner Brady, 47 Miller Ave.; the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shafer, 109 Cloudview; the Theodore T. Boutmy house on Toyon Lane; and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Lambert, 31 Girard Ave.

Concluding the tour will be three elegant Cote d'Azur apartments, where a champagne reception will follow.

Hostesses at the various homes will be modeling gowns. The silk screen posters, programs and tickets were designed by Jon Sutton. Tickets may be obtained at the Tides Bookstore, the Cote d'Azur on the day of the tour, or from Mrs. Berdahl.

THE PACIFIC floating home is a concept of on-the-water living, with the comforts and conveniences of home and facilities for indoor and outdoor activity contained on a barge type hull, which can be moved to a new waterfront setting at the owner's will.

The home of Col. and Mrs. Brady, known to many as the "Tyrrel Cottage," was originally built in 1870 as a carriage house. Modifications were made around the turn of the century, and the Bradys have transformed the charming white house into a comfortable modern home. With much of its barge-board trim intact, the house retains its 19th century look.

The new home of the Shafers is a spacious contemporary house designed especially for them. Contrasting with but complementing the modern furnishings are occasional pieces of Victorian vintage. A painting from the Sigmund Romburg collection, as well as antique prints and the work of a Sausalito artist, are hung in the house.

SO NEW AS to be not yet completely landscaped is the

THERE IS NO DOUBT that the new house of architect Theodore T. Boutmy, A.I.A., is designed by a man for a man. Guests who visit the house during the tour will see many unusual features such as a black marble tub in the master bath. About to look through the telescope that gives a detailed view of the bay and Mt. Tamalpais is Mrs. Knud Wibroe. Mrs. Peter Lambert is seated before a coffee table composed of a bomber's plastic dome covered by a large brass tray.

TWO MEMBERS OF the Sausalito Nursery School who will be hostesses for the house tour to be sponsored by the school familiarize themselves with details of one of the three Cote d'Azur apartments to be visited. Mrs. Fred Lyon stands by the fireplace and Mrs. R. J. Krajeski is seated. This is the living-dining room of an apartment decorated in a classical Italian theme by an internationally known decorator. The tour will begin at the Cote d'Azur apartments at 12:30 p.m. and end there with the serving of champagne. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

MRS. MANUEL F. ALLENDE, a hostess, rests a moment during a preview of the Cote d'Azur apartments which will be visited on the tour. This is the bedroom in one of the smaller apartments which has been decorated in a Spanish theme. An extraordinary feature is a pair of lamps flanking the bed, each of which has its own canopy in turquoise taffeta like that of the bed and matching bed cover. The room has a view of the Bay, such as is seen from many of the apartments.

Originator Of Stiletto Heel Apologizes For Them Nowadays

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

Roger Vivier, king of the current boot kick and originator of just about every other important recent shoe trend, is 50, fair-skinned, silver-haired, gentle shy, and very apologetic.

"I am sorry about those heels," says the visiting Parisian in halting English, referring to the metal-reinforced, spindly high heel he introduced a few years ago.

Yes, he has heard that certain American cities have passed laws against them because they are harmful to sidewalk surfaces, and he has also been told that the White House has implored its visitors not to wear them because they punch holes in the carpeting.

NOT NECESSARILY because of these objections, because Vivier believes in consistent style change, he later switched to medium heels (the Louis), and still later even lower, stacked ones.

Yet many women, petite ones especially, continue to teeter precariously on spikes. He shrugs helplessly.

Now the mild-mannered haute couture cobbler is beginning to be alarmed about boots. Since he put them into the collections of Christian Dior, Guy Laroche, Yves St. Laurent, and Simonetta a few seasons ago, the boot fever has swept around the world.

"I SEE WOMEN wearing them all the way up to here," he says, slicing at his knee cap with his hand, "and in the cities, too. They are very impractical because they keep the legs warm, but the feet stay cold." His were never higher than the calf.

Mind you, Vivier does not intend to abandon boots, just refine them. He who gave women needle toes, square toes, oval toes, and baby doll toes along with as many different kinds of heels during his 10 years with the house of Christian Dior, showed a new boot at his first independent collection this July.

IF THE SHOE FITS . . . Roger Vivier, designer of the boot, the pointed toe, and others, examines another style idea for the feminine foot.

It is ankle high, fitting snugly to the foot, and with a double but very thin sole for more warmth, and an inserted stretch band that expands to admit the foot. The boot is like an old-fashioned dancing shoe minus buttons and laces.

BUT BUTTONS—two at the heel of the shoe—were on the first pair he ever designed. Although Vivier at 16 had been studying to be a couturier, he created these at the urging of a friend who owned a shoe factory. They were an immediate success, as were hundreds of others that came from his lasts thereafter.

He is capable of cobbling his own style ideas, and does sometimes, just as the great couturier Balenciaga can and does stitch up some of the dreams he creates on his sketch pad.

From 7 a.m. until late at night five months out of the year, Vivier hibernates in his workshop permeated with the aroma of leather and dyes. When the pressure has lessened, he voyages the world searching for more modern paintings to hang in contrast to the antique furniture in his lavish apartment overlooking the Seine.

HE ESPECIALLY appreciates modern American artists, just as he especially appreciates the well-shod feet of American women. "Their shoes are not as heavy-looking as you see other places."

During his 34 years of fashioning shoes, the Frenchman has watched the feminine foot increase in size. "They work more, stand more, and are a lot more active," Vivier says of modern women.

THEIR ATTITUDE towards shoes has changed too. "They do not think of them as accessories. They are important fashion."

Yet the man who incited considerable derision and criticism from the male sex by putting ladies in needle-toed shoes and high altitude heels claims.

A Diversity Of Sausalito Residences To Be On Tour

The large central living room with a unique curved redwood ceiling has as its focal point a handsome steel fireplace, also designed by Mr. Boutmy. In moments the compact modern kitchen can become a part of the living and dining room and as quickly be made to disappear.

Fabric covered closet doors create an unusual effect in all three bedrooms, and the master bath contains a black marble tub, also designed by the architect, from marble once in the facade of a San Francisco bank.

THE LAMBERT HOME, though built in 1928 and remodeled and expanded several times, retains the look of an English farm house. Its owners have tried to retain this look and still make it a suitable setting for their fine collection of Georgian and Victorian furnishings.

The most recent addition is the fireplace, hearth and paneling rescued from the Sigmund Stern house in San Francisco by Mr. Lambert. A tree shaded glen below the house boasts the only brook in Sausalito.

The final stop on the tour will present three luxurious Cote d'Azur apartments decorated by an internationally known Hollywood decorator in modern, continental and traditional styles. All are enhanced by panoramic views of Sausalito and the bay.

THE AMERICAN HUSBAND

There's No Doubt In World That He's Most Criticized

First of four articles on the American husband.
By HARRY FERGUSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — No one knows for sure whether the American husband is the world's unhappiest man, but there is no doubt he is the most criticized. Experts in social behavior — amateur and professional, foreign and domestic — keep him constantly under the microscope and describe in millions of words how and why he squirms.

German men consider the American husband a sucker because of the way he handles his money. In Germany many women can't say for sure how much their husband earns because it isn't considered any of their business. They accept whatever housekeeping money they receive and keep their mouths shut.

BRITISH men shake their heads in wonderment over the way American men are bullied by their children, especially the teen-agers. "Children in this country," notes the London bureau of UPI, "are more to be seen than heard. When company comes, the children are fed separately." A thorough whacking on the seat of the pants, both at school and at home, is still highly esteemed in Britain as a corrective measure.

FRENCHMEN cannot understand why Americans work themselves to death to provide things their family doesn't really need. Their most prevalent theory is that the American husband is a sort of voluntary slave—indentured for life to a woman who lashes him periodically with demands for jewelry, expensive clothing and hats she doesn't need. French wives accept as a fact of life that it is possible to cook a meal and dispose of the dishes without the help of enough electric kitchen gadgets to operate a space capsule.

THE AMERICAN male plunges into marriage at an earlier age and with less thought than any man on earth. Every behavior expert who studies the situation notes the increasing number of teen-age marriages, and the subsequent high divorce rate. Only seven per cent of the American women in their thirties have never been married. Comparable statistics for Great Britain are 18 per cent and for France 28 per cent.

One out of every 4.5 American marriages ends in divorce, the world's highest rate. There is no way to measure the number of men who remain married even though they are unhappy and, as one philosopher puts it, "leading lives of quiet desperation." Apparently only a small percentage of these men seek the assistance of marriage experts and counsellors, and Dr. Paul Popenoe of the American Institute of Family Relations cites the case history of one of them:

"MR. H SAID: 'I put in a full day at the factory and by the time I get home about a quarter to six I am glad to lie down and rest. But my wife meets me at the door and tells me the two kids are driving her crazy and will I please take them off her hands? And will I at the same time vacuum the rug, sweep off the front porch and the sidewalk and bring in the clothes from the line as she didn't have time? It turns out she was in the park with the children all afternoon.'"

THE AMERICAN STANDARD of living is the highest in the world, and American women expect to start enjoying it as soon as they are married, or at least without allowing sufficient time for the husband's income to rise to the level of their needs and wants.

Sociologist James W. Gladden of the University of Kentucky got some interesting answers when he conducted a survey among girls on what they expected their husbands to do besides support them:

—Seventy per cent said they expected outside help.

—Fifty-four per cent expected their husbands to straighten up the house occasionally.

—Forty-four per cent demanded that the husband prepare the meals occasionally.

—Fifty-four per cent said they expected their husbands to make the beds, "but only rarely."

—Sixty per cent expected him to dispose of the garbage every day.

THERE WAS general agreement that husbands should remember birthdays, anniversaries and other "special" days; that husbands should be adept in "adapting themselves to the various moods and changes so typical of women"; that wives should be treated after marriage just as they were before.

AFTER MARRIAGE, a set of rules apparently is drawn up in the feminine mind, and Dr. Popenoe tells the results of a survey among women in Columbus, Ohio, on what the ideal husband should do. Some of them:

Tell interesting things about his work. Do thoughtful things the wife does not expect him to do. Sense when his wife wants affection and when she doesn't. Clean out the bathtub and wash basin after using them. Appreciate and praise new dishes the wife prepares.

KNOW HOW TO pull the wife out of the dumps when she gets into them. Always telephone when he is going to be late to dinner. Never talk about his former girl friends. Enjoy reading and discussing good books with his wife.

LU SUTTON PARENT-Teacher Assn. members in preparing for their annual dinner Oct. 26 put anyone to work who happens by their newly completed multi-purpose room at the school. Mrs. Lafayette Wight, general chairman, found Superintendent of the Novato Unified School District, James G. Bunker, right and John Laycock, principal of Lu Sutton, on the school grounds, so she immediately tied aprons on them to work in the new kitchen. The dinner, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. replaces the annual carnival this year. (Independent-Journal photo)

Professors To Be Speakers At Ross Meeting Tomorrow

"Education for Today and Tomorrow" will be the topic of the Ross School Parent-Teacher Assn. meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the school multi-purpose room. University of California professors will speak on subjects which will have an increasing influence on education: "Ability Grouping," Dr. Robert B. Ruddell; "Programmed Learning," Dr. Joe L. Byers; "Educational Television," Dr. Donald M. Hatfield.

Dinner To Replace Carnival

A turkey dinner sponsored by the Lu Sutton Parent-Teacher Assn., will replace the annual fund raising carnival in celebration of the completion of the new multi-purpose room at the school in Novato, announced Mrs. L. A. Wicht, chairman.

Fourth, fifth and sixth grade children are selling tickets for the dinner to be held from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 26. Wanda's Dance Studio will provide part of the show. An auction will also be held.

Mrs. Alan Herrnberger is entertainment chairman assisted by Mesdames William Weiner, William Olsen, Walter Haught and Van der Beets.

Mrs. Ray Monson heads the decorations committee.

Mrs. Thomas Easton is publicity chairman.

Marin Sweet Adelines Will Compete At Annual Conclave

The Claremont Hotel in Berkeley will be the setting for the 17th annual international convention of Sweet Adelines, Inc., Wednesday through Saturday, attended by members of the Marin Chapter of the women's barbershop singing organization.

Mrs. John D. Harding of Mill Valley is handling convention publicity; Mrs. Karl D. Wolff of San Anselmo and Mrs. F. M. Small Jr. of Mill Valley will be modeling at the fashion luncheon on Thursday. Mrs. George Ketron of San Anselmo will be the co-chairman of the "Woodshed Room," where the Sweet Adelines gather to harmonize.

Mrs. Robert Kreps of Tiburon, president of Marin Chapter, and Mrs. Roger W. Erickson, chapter delegate, will attend in their official capacities.

The main event is the competition to choose the best women's barbershop quartet. Following competition Friday afternoon and evening, the 10 top quartets will compete Saturday night. The competition plus a show is open to the public at the Berkeley Community Theater at 8 p.m. Husbands of the local members plan to attend the Saturday event.

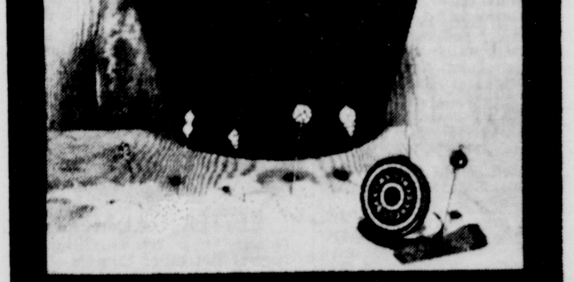

Play Day Planned At Tiburon Club

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Tiburon Peninsula Club has scheduled its annual fund raising play day on Wednesday.

Tennis and bridge will be available from 9 a.m. to noon. Lunch will be served starting at 12:30 p.m.

BOLINAS AVENUE
MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until 1:30 p.m., Oct. 22, 1963, for:

Installation of 60 inch-reinforced concrete pipe together with headwalls, rock rip-rap protection, and miscellaneous work involved in construction of improvements, complete in place on Bolinas Avenue, 300 feet south of Creek Road, City of Fairfax.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, P. O. Box 4186, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specification or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Treasurer, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) percent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's check or a bidder's bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 1:30 P.M. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub totals and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for this purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Emergency Health Care Being Stressed By Defense Department

VAN DELLEN

Emergency health care is stressed by the departments of defense and of health, education, and welfare from time to time.

The aim is to teach—through a medical self-help program—as many people as possible what to do in the event of emergency or disaster.

In Chicago, for example, a 16 week television course is being conducted in conjunction with the state medical society. The viewer will be shown how to manage emergency childbirth, burns, shock, bandaging of wounds, nursing care of the sick and injured, and protection against fallout.

BUT THIS is only part of the project. Everyone is asked to enroll in the course in order to obtain a 90-page reference guide, which explains and reviews every lesson offered. Examination is given the "students" at the end of the course.

The disaster program is not just another course in first aid. It includes many emergency situations that most Americans never have experienced. The next war will be fought close to home and if it includes nuclear weapons, special problems will be posed for the civilian population.

IN ALL probability, there will not be a physician in the bomb shelter and many conditions will arise that require emergency care. One of the children might choke on a small toy or a piece of meat. Granny may slip and break her hip, trying to get into the shelter. The excitement may precipitate a hysterical reaction in the neighbor next door. And you might be pregnant and go into labor 20 minutes after the enemy attacks.

ETAOINndsvETAOINN ETAO

These possibilities are not mentioned for scare purposes. But authorities believe a little knowledge will help considerably, even though it is limited to what not to do. Those who pass the course will not be allowed to practice medicine but they can help themselves and others during disasters and emergencies.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

OVERWEIGHT AND OVERTIRED

Mrs. W. writes: I have gained two pounds each year since age 40. Now, at 64, I weigh 172 pounds and am 5 feet, 1 inch. I try to diet but get weak. I also get weak when I clean house of shop for an hour or two. What would you suggest?

REPLY

A complete physical examination. A sluggish thyroid, for example, could account for the gain in weight and the fatigue that follows exertion.

DELAY VACCINATION

Mrs. H writes: Is smallpox vaccination harmful during the first three months of pregnancy?

REPLY

Not as a rule but reactions occur once in a while and there is no reason to take a chance unless vaccination is absolutely necessary at this time, such as in an impending epidemic.

THE SANDMAN

J. B. writes: I am 75 years old and tire easily. Then my eyes feel as if they had sand in them. Would this indicate my blood is low?

REPLY

No. Why not have a checkup to determine the cause of your fatigue? If you are healthy otherwise, a tonic may relieve the condition.

ARTHRITIS AND THE BLOOD

M. J. writes: Is there a blood test for arthritis?

REPLY

Yes. The eosin and Hyland (RA) slide tests are used for screening rheumatoid arthritis

Aviation Agency To Mark Anniversary

The Federal Aviation Agency with three installations in Marin County will celebrate its fifth anniversary for a 10-day period starting Friday.

There will be open house at the FAA's remote communications-air ground station on Mount Tamalpais from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday and from Oct. 28 through Nov. 1, the anniversary date.

The agency is unable to have open house at its two other Marin County facilities because access is by private roads, Rudolph Fogelsanger, supervisory electronic maintenance technician, reported.

The facility on Mount Tamalpais provides radio communication between aircraft and the Air Traffic Control Center at Fremont over a 200-mile radius.

Two miles west of Sausalito the FAA operates a "mountain top" facility where a very high frequency omni-directional beam helps aircraft navigate within a 50 to 150 mile range. A tactical air navigation facility furnishes information to aircraft on distances to and from the station.

A mile southwest of Inverness the FAA facility, a very high frequency omni-directional range, provides navigational bearings for aircraft within 50 miles and up to 150 miles at high altitudes.

Maintenance of the three stations is administered from the System Maintenance Sector at 2046 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Fogelsanger said visitors may reach the Mount Tamalpais facility by taking the road to the viewpoint, and then turning left at a Marin County Water District sign, about a half mile before the viewpoint.

The FAA, employing about 45,000 persons, is the seventh largest federal agency.

Hub School Tax Decision Tomorrow

The San Anselmo School District Board will find out for sure tomorrow night whether its proposed 45 cent tax boost passed in last Tuesday's election.

At the polls the tax raise was approved by a scant 19 votes with 26 absentee ballots yet to be counted.

School trustees will canvass the absentee ballots Tuesday, and also determine whether to call canother bond issue election.

A $700,000 bond issue and $500,000 state loan, designed to provide construction funds, were defeated Tuesday.

The board also will consider the appointment of a trustee to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Philip Smith, who moved from the district. The board will meet at Isabel Cook School at 8 p.m.

Lady Cosmonaut: No Wedding Plans

BERLIN (UPI)—Soviet Cosmonaut Valentina Tereshkova, 27, said yesterday she has no immediate marriage plans but will continue to take space flights after she does get married.

"I am not engaged," she said in answer to a question during an appearance with Lt. Col. Yuri Gagarin, the first man in space, on East German television.

But she quickly added that she planned to get married although she does not know to whom.

Old Buildings On Plan Agenda

New fences and relocation of old buildings are encroaching eight feet into a roadway east of Highway 101, according to a complaint the Larkspur planning commission will discuss at 8 p.m. tomorrow in city hall.

The complaint was submitted by property owners led by Oscar Tyroler, president of the Greenbrae Rod and Gun Club.

City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper said the roadway easement in question is deeded to individual owners and not to the city.

Corte Madera Firemen Plan Annual Event

The Corte Madera volunteer fire department will hold its ninth annual ball in the town recreation center at 9 p.m. Nov. 9.

Music will be supplied by Jack Barnes and his orchestra until 1 a.m. The event is to raise funds to operate the department, said Fire Chief Frank L. Nelson.

He Drove 34 Years Without A License

DUBUQUE, Iowa (UPI) — For 34 years Melvin Roeth stopped at all the stop signs and never drove over the speed limit.

Today he had his first traffic ticket—for driving without a license. He told police he never bothered to get one.

Halloween Dance Set Saturday

Costumes are "not absolutely required but strongly suggested" for the Corte Madera Lions club Halloween dance party at 8 p.m. Saturday at the town recreation center, announced Edward P. Sabo, president, today.

"There will be no dinner but there will be a terrific spread at 11 p.m." he said. Dancing will last to 1 a.m.

Tickets will not be sold at the door. They may be obtained at the Frank Knouse Service station on Paradise Drive and from Lions Ray Wehre and Edgar Chancelet.

Pope's Birthplace Is Fired Upon

CONCESIO, Italy (UPI)—Police blamed "Communists, vandals, or crackpots" today for shooting two bullets into the front door of the house where Pope Paul VI was born.

They said they have no clues as yet to the identity of the persons who fired the bullets early yesterday. Several signs pointing the way to the house also were hit by bullets. No one was hurt.

Only caretaker Giovanni Guerrini was in the house when the shots were fired. He usually is alone there, but the Pope's brothers, Dr. Francesco Montini and Sen. Lodovico Monini, sometimes visit.

Hub Planners Change Policy

The San Anselmo Planning Commission will meet tonight and again next Monday to avoid long sessions that carry on into the next morning.

Under its new policy, the commission is splitting its monthly session when the agenda is long, Ronald R. Hill, commission chairman, explained.

At tonight's session the commission will consider two requests for two-lot subdivisions and four applications for adjustments involving fences, lot sizes and a setback. The commission meets at 8 p.m. at the San Anselmo City Hall.

Thousands Attend Opening Day At Larkspur's New Value World

Minutes after Larkspur's new Value World Center opened last Wednesday morning, the parking area was completely filled. But throughout the day parking spilled into other areas of the Larkspur Plaza. Peak congestion was during the mid-afternoon.

Store manager John Dent reported more than 10,000 opening day sales, far more than anticipated. Add to this the hordes of lookers who didn't ring up the cash register on their first trip and it's anyone's guess how many actually turned out.

Thursday afternoon the jam evidently had broken, but traffic officers were still on duty and most of the 300 parking spaces were occupied.

A TOTAL of 2,623 home loans to California veterans of three wars have been made in Marin County since 1922, according to district manager Matt Zollner of the State Department of Veterans Affairs in Santa Rosa. The value of such loans amounted to $29,309,000. Many of them have been paid in full, Zollner said, so that the current status in Marin is 1,778 active loans, with a total contract value of $22,103,000. Apparently no farm loans were included in the program.

In the seven-county north coast district, 7,700 "Cal-vet" farm and home loans were made. The state total was 202,622, amounting to more than two billion dollars.

APPARENTLY there is a bright look ahead for increased sterling silver sales, most of which are channeled through jewelers and department stores. One estimate is that the sterling silver business will reach 190 million dollars at retail by 1965. You can expect to see a variety of new patterns on the market soon. James L. Callan and Sons of San Rafael is already featuring a new one called Charlemagne.

CERTIFIED public accountants R. L. Bourne of San Rafael and Peter James Wikel of Larkspur have registered to attend the annual Institute of Federal Taxation at the University of Southern California School of Law Wednesday through Friday.

RETIRED PEOPLE in California helped boost the state's "living benefits" from life insurance to a record 471 million dollars last year—6.1 per cent over 1961. It was the biggest dollar increase of any state, according to the Institute of Life Insurance.

Largest percentage increase was in annuity payments which go mainly to retired people and reflect California's growing importance as a retirement center. It still ranks second to New York in terms of living benefits, though Californians buy more life insurance than residents of any other state. California may overtake New York by 1967 as the state with the largest amount of life insurance in force.

Three Quints In Incubators

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP)—Three of the Fischer quintuplets have completed a giant step toward normal babyhood.

Mary Catherine and Mary Margaret Fischer were taken from Isolettes and put in incubators at St. Luke's Hospital Sunday. Brother James Andrew, largest of the quints, got out of the Isolette last week.

The two other girls, Mary Ann and Mary Magdalene, are still in Isolettes. But, like the others, they're getting along nicely.

Program Added

A program by the Bach to Mozart players on March 19, 1964, has been added to the College of Marin concert and lecture series, chairman George B. Duncan of the concert and lecture series committee announced today.

Heart Association Representatives Set

Dr. E. A. McCrum, president of the Marin County Heart Assn., and Dr. Gerson Jacobs, a member of the professional education committee of the association, will represent the group at the annual meeting of the American Heart Assn. in Los Angeles, Oct. 25-29.

Also attending the meeting will be Dr. Norman Carrigg, a board member of the association, and Mrs. Frances MacKinnon, executive director.

The men and women with college training! They always have fresh ideas. Uncle Sam will use them to hold our lead in science, business and living standards.

We certainly need these leaders, yes. But the cost to train them has gone up. Colleges are feeling the pinch. Many need new classrooms, laboratories, teachers.

To keep ideas coming, we must keep our colleges going. College is America's best friend.

HELP THE COLLEGE OF YOUR CHOICE NOW!

DANCING POLISH STYLE

Dennis Kozlowski of San Rafael and Halina Jasinka of San Francisco, in native costume, get ready to participate in the Oberek, a Polish folk dance, during the Festival of Nations at the Oakland Auditorium next Saturday at 8 p.m. The festival will continue Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Almcrants Issue Is Before Council

Four letters supporting retention of A. E. Almcrants as city manager of Mill Valley are on the agenda to be read at tonight's meeting of the city council.

One is from Daisy E. Grayson and signed also by 15 others; one from Mrs. D. E. Grayson alone; one from Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, and one from Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kane and signed by five other persons.

No contrary letters have been received.

The subject of the proposed firing of Almcrants is first on the agenda under old business; however, the council, which meets at 8 p.m., is to take up five matters of business before this when it sits first as the Mill Valley retirement board.

Three councilmen, Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks, William M. Secor and George D. Monardo, announced plans two weeks ago they intend to fire Almcrants tonight. No reasons were given although the mayor stated that if Almcrants asked for a hearing, a folder full of facts could be produced.

However, since the announcement, a citizens committee of five has met twice with different councilmen and reports "considerable progress" toward a compromise.

Also on the agenda is appointment of a committee to select a parks superintendent to replace Joseph F. Penders, who was reduced to groundsman Sept. 17 by Almcrants for "inefficiency."

Frederic D. Kerr, city auditor, will present the annual audit report to the council. A subcommittee report is to be made on why business license fees have been coming in so slowly, and there will be a progress report on moving of the community center building from Highway 101 to Project 17.

San Anselmo City Council To Decide On Card Rooms

The San Anselmo Cilty Council will decide whether to ban card rooms in the city after a public hearing at the San Anselmo City Hall at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Under the present law, card rooms are premitted if the operator obtains a license and pays a fee of $10 per table per month.

There are no card roms operating in the city, but there is an application filed to permit a card room at the Ranch House restaurant, 726 San Anselmo Avenue.

Police Chief Raymond Buchignani launched a protest against permitting card rooms at the Oct. 8 council meeting, and councilmen put the issue over until tomorrow's session.

The council also will reseive a petition from residents along San Francisco Boulevard, who are seeking greater traffic safety on the boulevard.

Gilliam To Talk At Dominican

Harold Gilliam, author of "San Francisco Bay" and "Island in Time," will give the first talk in a new lecture series in Guzman Lecture Hall on the Dominican College Campus at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Gilliam will speak on "The Image of San Francisco, 1776-1976."

The second talk in the series will be given on Nov. 19 by Rev. Kevin Wall, professor of theology at St. Albert's College, Oakland. He will review the book, "Zen Catholicism."

Tickets to the lectures may be obtained from the chairman, Guzman Hall Lecture Series.

Belvedere Meeting On Annexation Plan

The Belvedere City Council will continue its discussion of annexation at an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Belvedere Community Hall.

The council will also consider the plan of the Marin County Public Works Department for re-routing of Mar West Street to Tiburon Boulevard.

Scholarship Group Elects

Exceeding all previous semester totals, this year's membership stands at 76 students, according to Jane Adams, adviser.

Members, who must earn a ten-point grade average (three for As and one for Bs) in order to qualify, contribute ten cents per semester for the annual scholarships which this honor society offers to those qualified.

Shine In Exercise

Marine Sgt. Thomas R. Shine, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shine of 407 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, serving with the 13th Expeditionary Brigade, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, participated in extensive amphibious operations last month.

Discussion On Africa Set At College

Peter Barrett, counselor to the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland on the east side of Africa, will address College of Marin students at 12:30 p.m. Friday in Olney Hall, Robert Scoville, president of the Mariner Discussion Committee, announced today.

Ian K. McDougall of Sausalito, with whom Barrett will be visiting next Thursday to Oct. 28, said Barrett has no title for his talk but will give his answers to these questions:

(1) Are the whites in Africa actually racists? (2) Is the situation in the Rhodesian sphere "explosive" or is this the hope of the Afro-Asian block to promote their own powers and continue to create a situation whereby a race war will occur? (3) Is "one man-one vote" a workable theory in Africa.

Also some time Friday Barrett will be interviewed on KTIM, said a college aide. Barrett will arrive in San Francisco Thursday, United Nations Day, when he will address an African students conference at Sir Francis Drake Hotel.

Education Board: 'Where Do We Go'

Where do we go from here will be the question San Rafael Board of Education members will be seeking to answer at tomorrow's board meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the administration building.

Board members will discuss how to deal with the fact that the two elementary district bond issues were defeated at the Oct. 8 election. The staff will present reports on the financial and building condition of elementary schools in light of the defeated bond issue.

Also on the agenda is a report on the cost of rehabilitation work done at E Street School. Reports on operation of cafeterias will be submited and a plan discussed for speed-up of service at San Rafael and Terra Linda high school cafeterias.

Corte Madera To Get Proposal For Weekends

A new method of handling weekend public works emergencies is to be suggested by Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow to the Corte Madera Town Council at 7:30 p.m. today in town hall.

The council directed Brandow to work out something after abolishing an on-call system requiring employees to take turns by their phones on weekends.

The on-call system, started last June, was protested by the Town of Corte Madera Employees Assn.

Brandow will report on a proposal to buy a building department car through the county purchasing department, a street lighting survey on Christmas Tree Hill, and specifications for improving a section of Paradise Drive west of Harbor Drive.

The police-fire committee, consisting of Councilman Charles F. Pendleton and Albert E. Kogler, will report on a study of complaints by Herbert I. Vernett of 477 Tamalpais Drive about noise and throwing of beer cans in the area during and after teen dances in the town recreation center. Vernet lives across the street.

Some Unions Still Segregated

WASHINGTON (UPI) — AFL-CIO president George Meany estimates that of the 60,000 union locals, only about 170 still are segregated.

Segregation remains in most of them, Meany said yesterday during a television interview with Sen. Kenneth Keating, (R-N.Y.), because Negroes want them to remain that way.

Meany said there were pockets of resistance to integration, but that "these pockets are getting smaller and smaller all the time."

Poem Commended

Trygve Lie Is Hospitalized

OSLO (AP)—Trygve Lie, former secretary-general of the United Nations, is hospitalized in Oslo with an unidentified illness.

Brewer Turns Down Church Beer Garden

ACTON, England (UPI) — A brewing company said today it had turned down the Rev. Richard Parsons' offer to open a beer garden in his Anglican church graveyard here.

"We were flabbergasted," a brewery spokesman said. "But we turned it down because it might tarnish our image."

Agreement On Widening Of Road Due Supervisors

An agreement with Ghilotti Bros. to widen San Pedro Road in front of the Civic Center for $30,930 will be up for approval before the Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow.

The supervisors will also get a California Highway Patrol recommendation to eliminate parking on the northeast side of Kent Avenue near College of Marin.

Both of these items are scheduled for the afternoon session, which begins at 1:30 on the third floor of the civic center.

The supervisors' morning agenda, which begins at 9 a.m., includes the administrator's report on how work should proceed on the proposed residential treatment center for juvenile offenders in Lucas Valley.

Also on the morning agenda are a request to have Sheriff's Deputy Edward McKamey promoted to sergeant, the county fire chief's request for a new resuscitator for the Hick's Valley substation.

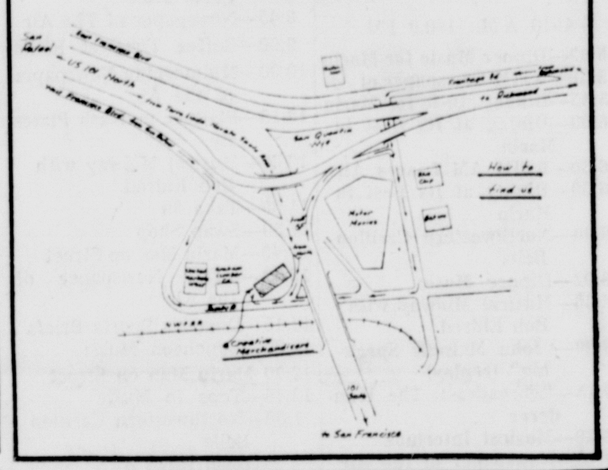

Public works matters are set for 1:30 p.m., followed by planning department items at 2 p.m.

The planning department matters include a continued hearing on the rezoning of Short Ranch, open area between San Anselmo and Terra Linda, and a feud in Los Ranchitos where a garage was built too close to the property line.

Captain Trains
